Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

For the first followers of Jesus, Pentecost was already a special celebration in their Jewish faith. On Passover, the people of Israel commemorate their freedom enslavement to Pharaoh; on Shavuot (Pentecost), they praise God for the Torah (God's Law) and becoming a nation committed to serving God. Throughout his life, the Lord Jesus celebrated those actions of God. Through his Death and Resurrection, he extended the promise of freedom to all peoples at the Last Supper by offering us a share in his Death and Resurrection. Through the Descent of the Holy Spirit, Jesus's followers are called to bring the New Law ("Love one another as I have loved you.") to all.

The primary images of Pentecost are often portrayed as wind and fire and a dove settling gently over a roomful of joyful people. But there is another essential symbol of the event: language. Pentecost is first and foremost a miracle of language. The very thing that has so often separated human beings one from another is suddenly the bridge that unites them. When the disciples speak in the streets of Jerusalem, they are perfectly understood by all. At that Pentecost we see that the ancient frustration of humanity to communicate is not the way it has to be nor the way God intends for us to live. Harmony and unity were the signs of God's original plan. Though it often seems impossible in a world like ours, God has no problem with the impossible.

But we are also given an example of one important barrier to complete and perfect understanding among human beings: the human will. The initial reaction of those who stood in the streets of Jerusalem that day did not see it as a miraculous phenomenon, but as the product of too much drink. We too can miss the Spirit by, for example, misreading overtures to reconciliation as absurd or threatening to our interest in maintaining what have proved to be useful, perhaps even profitable boundaries. But now that we have seen that a deadly pandemic respects no boundaries, can we live any other way than as Pentecost people?

SUNDAY MASS AVAILABLE ON ST MARGARET'S WEBSITE

The Sunday Mass from St Margaret of Scotland Church is streamed on our website each weekend. Click the Announcement and Online Masses section on the opening page. It will take you to a link for the masses celebrated each day from St Agnes Cathedral as well as the Liturgies from St Margaret's. Please note, for those who wish to spend some prayer time in front of the Eucharist, we have a link to the Easter Tabernacle as well as the Good Friday Cross.

We offer the Act of Spiritual Communion (lower right) for those of you celebrating with us from your homes so that we may all pray it together at Communion time.

Anyone wishing to place a request in the Book of Intercession is invited to send a eMail to either Fr Jim (jwood@saintmargaret.com) or Fr Paul (pbutler@saintmargaret.com) so we can add your intentions to The Book of Intercession and remember them at Mass.

As noted elsewhere in the Bulletin, we ask that you let us know of the passing of any of our parishioners. Since Funeral Homes are not scheduling funeral masses, we are often not aware of those who have died.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

ST. MARGARET OF SCOTLAND PARISH – COMING BACK

As we are all aware, the closings of so many aspects of our lives were very sudden. The decisions taken in March to restrict parish activities and liturgies were guided by concern for the common good and the protection of the vulnerable. The decisions that are in the process of being taken to resume worship and activities will be guided by that same concern for the common good and the protection of the vulnerable. They will not be as sudden as the closings in March.

However, since we have reached the milestone of Long Island Phase One re-opening, I wanted to let you know how we are faring here at St. Margaret of Scotland Church as of May 31st and give you an idea of what we are thinking about.

Fr. Jim

Please Keep in Mind:

- (1) Due to the anticipated demands of cleaning and disinfecting the church during this pandemic transition time, we cannot follow our usual parish schedules.
- (2) Both Fr. Paul and Fr. Jim are in the higher risk age population (i.e., over 65 years old).

Masses:

- Our weekly videoed Sunday Mass, begun on Palm Sunday on our website, will continue even after the church is available for Mass, since some parishioners will not feel comfortable attending physically.
- Indoor Masses: since the maximum is 10 people (including the priest), we are not considering it at this time. As permitted numbers increase, we will keep you informed about what can be done.
- Outdoor Masses: we are exploring needed details of radio transmission and logistics.

Personal Prayer: We are looking for the best way to allow some time for coming into the church. However, the 10-person limit would still be in effect, and due to the difficulty of cleaning and disinfecting, only a certain part of the church would be available.

Baptisms: These will be celebrated one family at a time. We had eight families whose ceremonies had to be postponed: three families have chosen a time for the ceremony; two are thinking about it; and three will wait until the fall.

Funerals: As of this week, funerals are now permitted, but with a 10-person limit. Also, if families request, we offer a short commendation service in front of the church on the way to the cemetery.

Weddings: Same 10-person limit.

Confessions: With social distancing, confessionals cannot be used. Options are permitted to celebrate the sacrament inside or outside. We are exploring ways to offer the sacrament and will have more info in the future.

PLEASE NOTE: According to current Diocesan rules, Holy Communion is not available at any liturgical celebration (including funerals). Diocesan procedures are being prepared.

One Bread, One Body

We have received the booklets we distribute after mass every two months. With no public Masses being celebrated, we will be pleased to send you a copy of the Summer Season booklet to your home. If you wish a copy, please call the Parish Center during “working hours” and leave a message with your name, address and phone number (in case we have any questions).

Emergency Care: Maximum Safety for Urgent and Emergent Needs

Catholic Health Heightened Safety Measures Protects Emergency Department Patients

Catholic Health Services (CHS) maintains the highest level of safety across its integrated health care system. We've elevated that stellar care as we battle COVID-19. This is critical, because even during a pandemic, people will have accidents or health issues requiring emergency care. CHS wants you to know our emergency departments (ED) are safe centers of care. In fact, CHS has been successfully treating patients across the system and performing emergency surgeries throughout this pandemic. Similarly, CHS has been delivering babies, protecting the well-being of both mother and child.

CHS has put extensive measures in place to prevent the spread of the COVID-19 virus—from intensive sanitization to safe social distancing to isolation of COVID-19 patients.

If you or a family member are experiencing any symptoms that may require emergency care, call 911 or drive directly to a CHS hospital. We're ready, safe and able to help you.

You may also contact our ambulance partner, Hunter Ambulance by calling (516/631)719-HELP.

Confirmation Preparation

Confirmation II

We begin our final chapter “Where do I go from here?” with an experience of the “lectio divina” prayer that we learned and used a number of times in class.

Take a moment. Quiet your heart, sit comfortably, close out the noises and commotion around you.

Place yourself in the boat with St. Peter as you read. Be there with him.

While the crowd was pressing in on Jesus and listening to the word of God, he was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret. He saw two boats there alongside the lake; the fishermen had disembarked and were washing their nets. Getting into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, he asked him to put out a short distance from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat.

After he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch.” Simon said in reply, “Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets.” When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come to help them. They came and filled both boats so that they were in danger of sinking.

When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at the knees of Jesus and said, “Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man.” For astonishment at the catch of fish they had made seized him and all those with him, and likewise James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners of Simon. Jesus said to Simon, “Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men.”

When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him.

Luke 5: 1-11

After a hard day in the sun fishing with Peter how would you feel? What did Jesus' expression say as he spoke to Peter? What changed in Peter's heart?

Talk some time, with your eyes closed, and speak to Jesus. Ask him what he and the Father need you to do.

How often has he asked you to do something that seemed foolish, like going back out to fish after hours of catching nothing?

What has a friend asked you to do to help when they were too overcome to be able to complete the task by themselves?

Did you drop what you were doing and help? Why or why no?

What does Jesus want you to do? How are you to be a fisherman today in the 21st century here on Long Island?

How can you use your talents and time?

Please know you can always contact me at: pbutler@saintmargaret.com.

It is an easy way to continue your support of St Margaret of Scotland Parish during this difficult time. Your Bank does not charge a fee for this service. You have complete control of your funds, starting, stopping and changing at your will. We have no access to your accounts, receiving only what you wish. Envelopes Do Help

A special thank you to the parishioners who have been using envelopes. Please remember that the parish is not able to record your donation for tax purposes unless it is in an envelope. Use of envelopes helps us when asked to sign forms attesting to eligibility to serve as a sacramental sponsor, determine Faith Formation parish support, as well as Catholic school subsidy for individual families. Please do not use staples or scotch tape. Thank you!
