Stewardship Thought for the Week

During this Easter season, show the world that we, too, have been raised with Christ. Put your Faith-into-Action by joyfully sharing the “Good News” - that Christ is risen, victorious over sin and death - with a smile, wherever and whenever you can.

Sacrificial Giving

Thank you to all who so generously give to the support of our parish. You are returning to God what God has so generously given to you.

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

The way of the Kingdom bears little resemblance to the way of the law. In today's First Reading, the religious leaders of the Sanhedrin have the apostles before them. This is not their first post-Easter run-in, which is evident by the remarks of the high priest: "We gave you strict orders, did we not, to stop teaching in that name?" Once again, the law people are at a total loss to comprehend the Kingdom people. Peter patiently explains, "We must obey God rather than mortals." The religious leaders seem to expect that the apostles would do as they're told! They seem to believe that they can command a person's soul by simply giving an order.

The differences between the way of the Kingdom and the way of the law also show up in the post-Resurrection appearances of Jesus. If Jesus were a proponent of lawful living, he would have had a few well-chosen words of correction to administer to his followers, who had failed in their allegiances all across the board. But instead, Jesus does what love longs to do: He comforts Mary in the garden, offers peace to his friends huddled in the upper room, and goes out of his way to include Thomas, who had excluded himself. In today's Gospel, he makes breakfast for his friends when they haven't been able to catch a bite all night. And when Jesus speaks privately to Peter, who is haunted by mortification since his denial, the words are only about love. He doesn't ask Peter for an apology, a pledge of allegiance, or a testimony of faith. Jesus simply asks, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Jesus trusts that if he has Peter's love, all the rest will be added besides. Jesus commissions him to serve. Evidently, no special skills are required beyond love. ~ Fr. Jim

Mother's Day

Mother's Day May Crowning

Our May Crowning will be on Saturday, May 11th at the 5 PM Mass to honor our Blessed Mother. Her statue will remain in the sanctuary throughout our Sunday Masses on May 12th. Let us thank God for the gift of such a loving Mother.

THANK YOU!

The days of Holy Week are unique in the Church Year: many different services expressing different thoughts and feelings that offer us insights into God's work of salvation. But for them to happen, many people had to offer their talents and help. So, before more time passes, there are the people we want to thank:

- all the liturgical ministers: who served at the altar and had to learn extra and different tasks; who read the scriptures; who led and supported us in song and who "danced before the Lord"; who offered the gift of Holy Communion or who welcomed and greeted all who came to our church;
- the planners, the cleaners, the shoppers, the decorators, the sacristans and set-up people; to all who made our Church so beautiful throughout the Triduum (Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter) and who transformed our Auditorium to a worthy place of worship for Easter Sunday Masses;
- the parishioners who said "yes" to being part of the unique rituals on Holy Thursday, and those who stayed to spend time at the Repository.
- the volunteers who prepared and served our "after Vigil" refreshments;
- the members of the AOH who helped our Ushers with the double Masses on Easter morning;
- lastly, thanks to all who brought a great Easter spirit to our Masses through your prayer and singing.

In addition, Fr. Jim and Fr. Paul say a big Thank You for all the thoughtful Easter "goodies" and cards that they received!

Becoming a Catholic Christian~ RCIA

Do you know a friend or family member who has expressed a desire to learn more about the Catholic faith? Is there someone who has mentioned to you that they are thinking about becoming a Catholic and does not know how to proceed? Are you someone who is reading this yourself and would like to learn more about the Catholic faith? If the answer to any of these questions is "Yes," then you are invited to continue your exploration with the members of our RCIA team. RCIA stands for Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults.

The first stage is called "Inquiry," a time to ask questions and receive answers without any pressure to make a decision. The goal is to help adults move toward a commitment to the Lord and full participation in the Catholic community at their pace. It is meant specifically for adults who are seeking Baptism, or those who have been baptized but have not received Confirmation or Eucharist. For more information, please call the Parish Center (631-732-3131 x 133).

The Catholic Faith Network (CFN) - is at the service of the Word, the Church, the Bishops and the Encounter of Faith and Culture. Our mission is to proclaim the teachings of our Lord to the Catholic Community and beyond using media in all forms. (CFN) is available on Optimum channel 29/137, Verizon FiOS TV channel 296, and Charter Spectrum channel 162/471 throughout the New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut area. The Catholic Faith Network (CFN) is also available on selected cable and satellite systems nationwide, along with a vast on-demand library of original programming and a high quality 24/7 live stream

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

The goal doesn't change

Common wisdom says everything we need to know about life, we heard in kindergarten. Basic principles like being kind to everyone, sharing what we have, including with the new kid, saying please and thank you—these don't lose their value as we and the kids around us get older. In a similar way, the demands of discipleship don't change the longer we travel the road with Jesus. The first thing Jesus says to newcomers is "follow me." One of the last conversations the Risen Lord has with Peter includes the words "follow me." To get where Jesus is going, keep following.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41; Revelation 5:11-14; John 21:1-19 (48). "And when Jesus had said this, he said to Peter, 'Follow me.'"

EASTER WEEKDAY

Here's your cue

The great thing about the gospel stories is that they show the all-too-human way in which folks scurry after Jesus in the wake of a really big miracle like his multiplying of the loaves and fishes or walking on water. In doing so they hold a mirror up to us. Sure, we care about his message, but most of us also like having a friend in high places to answer our calls! Here's the thing, though: Jesus isn't looking for a fan club or stardom; he wants us to pay attention to his gospel and respond to his call. He wants us to get to work, not wait for a show. Are we ready to take the stage ourselves and play a role?

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 6:8-15; John 6:22-29 (273). "When the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they . . . came to Capernaum looking for Jesus."

Tuesday, May 07, 2019

EASTER WEEKDAY

Do you see clearly?

Early in the 20th century quantum physicists discovered a mysterious phenomenon they called the "disturbing observer." They had learned that merely observing a quantum particle changes it in unpredictable ways. As a result, scientists have had to develop elaborate methods for their experiments to compensate for the changes their observations cause. What is true at the quantum level of reality holds true at the visible level as well, only the effects are much more subtle. In other words, your attitude toward a person or event has an unpredictable effect on what you perceive. Today, be aware that what you observe is partly of your own making. Are you judging or loving?

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 7:51-8:1a; John 6:30-35 (274). "What sign can you do, that we may see and believe in you?"

MEMORIAL OF TERESA DEMJANOVICH

Quiet faith, big impact

Living a brief, obscure life has never been a barrier to sainthood. Such was the destiny of today's memorial saint: Blessed Teresa Demjanovich, born in Bayonne, New Jersey in 1901. She earned a college degree (unusual for women then) and soon after became a nun. Two years later, at age 27, she died of complications following a surgery. Today scholars recognize that she latched onto the idea of the universal call to holiness decades before the church emphasized the concept in Vatican II. Do you prefer holiness that is spectacular? If so, challenge yourself to also seek faithfulness in the hidden corners, as did Blessed Teresa.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 8:1b-8; John 6:35-40 (275). "For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life."

Thursday, May 09, 2019

EASTER WEEKDAY

Ask and you shall receive

Often in life you can use a mentor: someone wiser and more experienced to show you the ropes. A couple married longer than you knows a little something about getting past the rough spots. A retired colleague can share a few tricks about problem-solving at the office. In a story from the Acts of the Apostles, an Ethiopian eunuch was clearly on a faith journey: not a Jew, yet traveling to Jerusalem to worship and read Hebrew prophecy. He'd done all the prep work for faith: walking the walk, doing his homework. Now all he needed was a guide. Cue Philip. As the saying goes: "The teacher appears when the student is ready." Need a mentor? Prepare to receive one!

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 8:26-40; John 6:44-51 (276). "He replied, 'How can I, unless someone instructs me?'"

Friday, May 10, 2019

MEMORIAL OF DAMIEN DE VEUSTER, PRIEST

Take it to the limit

How far would you go for God? Father Damien de Veuster went all the way from his native Belgium to minister in Hawaii. He went all the way to the margins of society to care for the bodies and souls of lepers in a quarantined colony there. He went all the way to living in solidarity with them—tending their wounds and eating with them from his hands—and contracted leprosy himself. When he died in 1889, news of his death went all the way around the world via telegraph and steamship. Be inspired by this saint to take the next steps in your service to the mission of Christ.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 9:1-20; John 6:52-59 (277). "Whoever eats my Flesh and drinks my Blood has eternal life."

Saturday, May 11, 2019

EASTER WEEKDAY

When the rubber hits the road

"The Christian ideal has not been tried and found wanting; it has been found difficult and left untried," wrote British author G.K. Chesterton. The gospel teachings are indeed challenging; they go against the grain, especially in a culture that encourages us to focus on a different "trinity"—the self-absorbed trinity of Me, Myself, and I. Jesus challenged us to look beyond our own needs (which God is fully aware of in any case) and respond to the needs of those around us. Many walked the other way when they heard this message. But others stayed. Will you stay or will you go?

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 9:31-42; John 6:60-69 (278). "Many of Jesus' disciples who were listening said, 'This saying is hard; who can accept it?'"

Liturgical Ministry Training

One of the most important fruits of the Vatican Council (1962-1965) was the desire of the Bishops from around the world for more active participation on the part of the congregation at Mass. This began by having the Mass translated into local languages. Building on that, various ministries were revived or created to allow men and women to use their gifts to strengthen the local parish. Readers of the Scriptures (Lectors) and Ministers to assist with Holy Communion have enriched our worship here at St. Margaret over the years.

Longtime or new parishioners are invited to prayerfully consider this opportunity to become part of these wonderful ministries. It would be a wonderful way to thank the Lord for his blessings!

Training sessions will be offered in May for

Lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of Communion
at Parish Masses

Training for both Ministries:

Thursday 7pm – 10pm [May 23 in Melville]

Additional training for Ministers of

If you are interested, please write to Fr. Jim

Unfortunately, the railings delivered were badly made and imperfect in design. The fabricator would not do what we demanded, so we did not pay him and asked another company, who gave us a sample before we made the deal. He knows our needs and will deliver them as soon as possible.

As reported, the planning for the update of the Auditorium is well under way. It is our plan that the work be done this summer while the entrance bridge is replaced.

The rest rooms will be enlarged to accommodate the widening of the stalls for “adult sized” bodies. Two ADA compliant restrooms will be added for the convenience of those in wheelchairs or walkers.

A new hood will permit the re-installment of our long stored stove. Other improvements will allow for preparing food for our parish celebrations. A new hot water heater and dishwasher will make cleaning up easier.

Under-counter refrigeration and a freezer will make it easier to access food needed for an event. New lighting will brighten the kitchen area. We are looking to address the electric needs of the kitchen and auditorium for coffee urns.

Proposed Schedule of Work

PHASE I Fall 2018

Approximate Cost: $450,000

- Replace the Church Entrance Bridge and Side Stairways
- Mandated Removal of the oil tank in the Parish Center and replace the Boiler
- Update the Kitchen in the Auditorium
