Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

For a change of pace on these Sundays until Labor Day, I'm offering examples of people from the 20th century whose lives give us a chance to appreciate the different ways that faith can be lived and shared. ~Fr. Jim

Dorothy Day Cofounder of the Catholic Worker (1897-1980)

Dorothy Day, who died on November 29, 1980, had spent her youth as an activist and journalist engaged in the great struggle for social justice. Following her conversion to Catholicism in 1927—an experience prompted by the birth of a daughter—she struggled to find some way to combine her faith with her commitment to the cause of the poor.

She found that path in 1932, following her meeting with a Frenchman, Peter Maurin. He encouraged her to launch a newspaper, The Catholic Worker, to promote the social message of the Gospel. This gave birth to a lay movement based in “houses of hospitality,” combining voluntary poverty with the works of mercy—feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless. Day combined her charitable work with a radical critique of the social structures that give rise to so much poverty. Her deep belief in the sacredness of life caused her to oppose all war and violence, and she was regularly arrested for acts of civil disobedience. All the while her activism was rooted in a disciplined life of prayer and sacrament.

Her cause for canonization was initiated in 2000, and she was named a Servant of God. In his speech before Congress in 2015, Pope Francis, citing her among four “great Americans” who “offer us a way of seeing and interpreting reality,” praised her commitment to justice and the cause of the oppressed.

“The greatest challenge of the day is: how to bring about a revolution of the heart, a revolution which has to start with each one of us.” — Dorothy Day

Becoming a Catholic Christian~ RCIA

Do you know a friend or family member who has expressed a desire to learn more about the Catholic faith? Is there someone who has mentioned to you that they are thinking about becoming a Catholic and does not know how to proceed? Are you someone who is reading this yourself and would like to learn more about the Catholic faith? If the answer to any of these questions is "Yes," then you are invited to continue your exploration with the members of our RCIA team. RCIA stands for Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults.

The first stage is called "Inquiry," a time to ask questions and receive answers without any pressure to make a decision. The goal is to help adults move toward a commitment to the Lord and full participation in the Catholic community at their pace. It is meant specifically for adults who are seeking Baptism, or those who have been baptized but have not received Confirmation or Eucharist. For more information, please call the Parish Center (631-732-3131 x 133).

Ten Tips for Protecting Children and Offering Outreach to Victims/Survivors

1. Sexual abuse is about the victim.

Many people are affected by abuse but the individual most impacted is the victim who has suffered a violation of trust that can affect his or her entire life.

2. No one has the right to have access to children.

No one, no matter who they are, has an automatic right to be around children or young people who are in the care of the Church without proper screening and without following the rules.

3. Common sense is not all that common.

Dioceses, schools, parishes, and especially families, must educate themselves and others on how to protect children.

4. Child sexual abuse can be prevented.

It is critical to build safety barriers around children and young people to keep them from harm—such as protective guardians, codes of conduct, background evaluations, policies and procedures, and safety training programs.

5. The residual effects of having been abused can last a lifetime.

The sense of violation goes deep into a person's psyche and feelings of anger, shame, hurt and betrayal can build long after the abuse has taken place. Those who have been abused can heal, but it often takes time, therapy, and the support of loved ones.

6. Feeling heard leads toward healing. Relief from hurt and anger often comes when one feels heard, when one's pain and concerns are taken seriously, and a victim/survivor's appropriate sense of rage and indignation are acknowledged.

7. You cannot always predict who will be an abuser.

Experience shows that most abuse is committed by someone who has gained the trust of a victim/survivor and his/ her family.

8. There are behavioral warning signs of child abusers.

Some abusers isolate a potential victim by giving him or her undue attention or lavish gifts, others allow young people to participate in activities which their parents or guardians would not approve, such as watching pornography, drinking alcohol, using drugs, and excessive touching, such as wrestling and tickling.

9. People can be taught to identify grooming behavior.

Grooming behaviors are the actions which abusers take to project the image that they are kind, generous, caring people, while their intent is to lure a minor into an inappropriate relationship. Offenders can be patient and may groom their victim, his or her family, or community for years.

10. Background checks work.

Background checks in churches, schools and other organizations keep predators away from children both because they scare off some predators and because they uncover past actions which should ban an adult from working or volunteering with children.

Vol II Edition 24

Total Pledged: $857,880

1st Part of Deck Battened Down

On Monday, the base concrete for the bridge deck was poured over the steel deck. The weather was perfect and there were no problems. As of today (Tuesday) we await the backfilling of the hole where the new sidewalk with wheelchair access will stand (lay?). Installation of the insulation and wirework for the for the ice melting system should be evident as you attend today.

Bids were due on Wednesday for work on the auditorium restrooms and kitchen. This coming week, we will be reviewing the bids received and scheduling meetings with the finalists so we can award the contract.

Finally, we have been informed that work on the gas conversion is scheduled for July 29th.

Special Announcement: During this reconstruction time, work has begun for the rear two side pews on both sides. They will be set further apart so that those who come to Mass with walkers can enter and exit more easily and have Holy Communion brought to them in a more dignified way. In addition, each rear pew will be shortened so that a wheel chair can be placed next to the pew and out of the aisle.
