Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

Matthew's Gospel offers us a unique part of Jesus's Baptism: John the Baptist's hesitation to baptize Jesus. Up to this point, John has been baptizing people for a good while. One more shouldn't be difficult. It should be his finest hour to receive the Lord for whom he has been preparing the nation. Instead John freezes and objects; he is at a loss to do the first thing his Lord asks him to do.

It's not that John doesn't know how to do what Jesus asks. It's that he's confounded by the why of the request, not to mention the who and the what of it. John wants to understand it before he does it, and according to every path of reasoning, the thing doesn't make sense. Baptism is for repentance—does Jesus need to repent? Baptism absolves us of past sin—does Jesus have any? Baptism prepares the way of the Lord—does Jesus mean to prepare the way for himself? John believed that he is cooperating with the great divine plan, but when God introduces some inexplicable variables, John balks.

This reaction is not rare—it is among the most common spiritual obstacles we face. Being finite folk, we have a very limited perspective on what God's plan is. Given the unexpected, we try to reason our way through it. But faith is not the result of logic. And so it is with John: for him, the sinless one shouldn't be baptized; he should be baptizing! It was as simple as that.

What it took John to breach the impasse was an act of surrender. He gave in "for now," or he just did it, not understanding why. Sometimes for us that way of trust without understanding is our path of discipleship. ~ Fr. Jim

Thank You! Thank You!

We hope that this Christmas Season allowed you to celebrate the Birth of our Savior with family and friends! Just as at your homes, a lot of work had to be done at our Parish to pull all the pieces together. And so, on this Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, the last of our Christmas feasts, we want to say thank you to all who made this Christmas time special.

We appreciate the dedicated efforts of so many parishioners in the following areas:

Setting up & taking down the mangers, banners, trees and other decorations in the Church and Auditorium;

Music by our various music ministries (adult choir and children's chorus); Service by our liturgical ministers (Altar Servers, Lectors, Ministers of Communion, Ushers) who helped our celebrations to flow smoothly; And the extra behind-the-scenes details needed (washing the linens needed for so many Masses, watering the flowers, printing the song booklets).

In addition, thanks to those who made this Season more festive by:

- Enhancing the beauty of the Church through contributions for the church holiday flowers, and
- Sharing so many delicious goodies with the Parish Center and the Priests' Residence.

To one and all who helped create such a wonderful time in any way, thank you so much!

During this Christmas season, the Marinello Family Funeral Home wishes to honor those we love who have been called home to the Lord. To do so, Cathy Marinello and her Staff have made a generous donation to Outreach in their memory.

Is there someone who has mentioned to you that they are thinking about becoming a Catholic and does not know how to proceed? Are you someone who is reading this yourself and would like to learn more about the Catholic faith? If the answer to any of these questions is "Yes," then you are invited to continue your exploration with the members of our RCIA team. RCIA stands for Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults.

The first stage is called "Inquiry," a time to ask questions and receive answers without any pressure to make a decision. ### Hints for the Flu Season

Since we are in the flu season, we are offering two practical directives to assist the congregation during Mass. The “Sign of Peace” does not have to be a handshake. Turning to those near you and offering a slight bow with a verbal wish without touching is proper. Be mindful of the symptoms of colds and the flu. If you have any symptoms, please refrain from receiving the Precious Blood from the Communion Cup.

Also, getting a flu shot is a way of helping yourself & others.
