Dear Parishioners and Visitors, .

Today's Gospel. Often in our loud and busy world, communication means getting information, offering opinions and chitchat. Genuine conversation is different and takes more effort. The people involved talk and listen; ideas grow and change. New awareness can happen. In today's Gospel, Jesus has such a conversation with the Samaritan woman. This is unusual, for most of the time, Jesus doesn't waste words. Recruiting followers, he says, "Come," and they either do or don't. When he teaches the crowds, there's no dialogue. Only with the Samaritan woman does genuine conversation take place. She alone, this nameless woman, grows in understanding as a result of thoughtful time spent with Jesus. Information turns to revelation, and new life comes to her village—all because one woman was willing to talk. In our lives, who can we have such a conversation with?

Coronavirus. As of Tues. (3/10), these decisions have been made to deal with the new virus. The directive from the Bishop about no Sign of Peace and no Communion Cups is in place. We have added some wall mounted dispensers for hand sanitizer in the Church (front lobby; behind the altar wall) and the Parish Center (for Outreach food distribution). More dispensers are on order. The large holy water font has been removed from the lobby, because it is too difficult to keep clean. (We're keeping the smaller ones and replacing the water more frequently.)

Vandalism. Sadly, in the past couple of weeks, we have had deliberate property damage. First, an auditorium window was broken (with no signs of entry). This past Sunday evening, one of our entrance signs was broken in two. (See picture below.) This took a lot of effort, since the signs are thick and well secured. We, of course, do not know if this is the beginning of a pattern, only time will tell. ~ Fr. Jim

Theme: “On the Road ~ Walking through the Gospels and through Life”

Talk 1: The Desert: Going Within

Our quick paced, technologically driven world often prevents us from hearing the voice of God telling us we are the beloved. St. John the Baptist met people in the desert in the Holy Land. God invites us into a different desert, the wild, that inner place where we stop, let go of the noise and distractions, and just be present with Jesus. It can be a difficult thing to do, since we also encounter our fears. And there, we can discover how much God loves us and our passion in life as well.

Talk 2: The Cross: Extravagant Love

In living life and in journeying into the inner desert we experience “wounds of the heart.” Many of us grew up in a Church that emphasized sin, which made many of us fearful of God, believing that we must become perfect before God will love us. Yet God loves us just the way we are, and it is this love that has the power to change us, to heal us if we are open and take the time for it to happen. The cross is all about surrendering out of love, of living life on life’s terms.

Talk 3: Memory: Transforming Our Story

The story of the disciples on the road to Emmaus invites us to move from our Mission back into our everyday lives, but with a difference – remembering what we received here. The biblical concept of memory is living and dynamic. Jesus takes the two disciples’ static memory of his death and refashions it into a living memory, one that gives them courage, strength and leaves their hearts burning within them. As with the two disciples, what is real and stable in our lives is not what is behind us, but in what we can become as we journey with the Risen Lord.

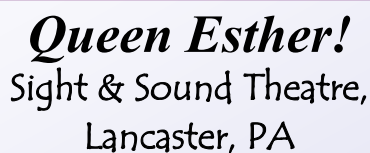

Bio ~ Michael Moran, C.P., a native of West Springfield, MA, professed his vows as a Brother of the Eastern Province of the Passionist community in 1974. In 1977 he received a master’s degree in theology from St. John’s University in New York City, after which he worked in various retreat centers and other ministries of his province.

Though largely self-taught, he studied art with August Mosca, a noted Long Island artist, from 1984 to 1989. He attended the Art Students League in Manhattan from 1989 to 1990. One of his specialties is painting icons, an ancient art form of the Eastern Christian churches, in contemporary terms. His art can be seen on his web site www.angelstudiostore.com.

Brother Michael has also served as the chaplain of the Supportive Care Program of St. Vincent’s Hospital in New York City, a program that provides support for people with life-threatening illnesses and their caregivers. He also conducts painting classes for senior citizens in New York.

Liturgical Ministry Training

The Season of Lent is a time for us to pause, pray and reflect on the call that the Lord Jesus gives to each of us. Prayer, Fasting and Almsgiving are the three pillars of growth according to Jesus and our Church's tradition.

A fruitful way to express our willingness to follow the Lord is by sharing our time and talents. A way to express our gratitude to the Lord for his blessings and to be of service to others is by being part of our Mass in an active way. Ushers assist in practical ways. Members of our Music Ministry help us pray. Readers of the Scriptures (Lectors) and Ministers of Holy Communion also enrich our worship here at St. Margaret of Scotland.

Longtime or new parishioners are invited to prayerfully consider joining these wonderful ministries. For Ushers and Music Ministry, please talk to one of those ministers. For Lectors and Ministers of Holy Communion, a training session is needed.
