Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

As we continue to face the challenges of our “new normal,” I invite you to strengthen your faith journey with examples of people from the 20th century who faced challenges of their own. Their lives give us a chance to appreciate the different ways that faith can be lived and shared.

Fr. Jim Wood, Pastor

Servant of God Salvo D’Acquisto

Martyr (1920–1943)

Salvo D’Acquisto, a working-class boy from Naples, left school at fourteen and joined the Italian Carabinieri when he was nineteen. Soon after he was sent to Libya, where he was wounded and contracted malaria. He returned to Italy in 1942, attended officer school, and was assigned to a rural center near Rome.

On September 8, 1943, a division of German SS troops were camped in an old military installation. While inspecting abandoned munitions, an explosion occurred, wounding and killing several soldiers. The commander believed the explosion was caused by “unknown locals” and demanded that the Carabinieri, under D’Acquisto’s command, conduct an investigation. He concluded that the explosion was an accident, but the commander would not be dissuaded. He rounded up twenty-two local residents and demanded that they reveal the culprits. They insisted that they were innocent and knew nothing.

At this point the prisoners were given shovels and told to dig a mass grave for their own execution. After they had dug for some time D’Acquisto stepped forward, declared that he alone was responsible for the explosion, and insisted that all the others be released. On September 23 he was executed by firing squad. His cause for canonization has been introduced.

“We have to conform ourselves to God’s will whatever the cost in suffering or sacrifice.”

—Servant of God Salvo D’Acquisto

SUNDAY MASS WILL CONTINUE ON ST MARGARET'S WEBSITE

We resume celebrating weekend masses in St Margaret's church this weekend as was usual, at 5<sup>pm</sup> Saturday and 8<sup>am</sup>, 10<sup>am</sup> and noon each Sunday. As we continue to deal with covid 19, Bishop Barres is continuing his dispensation from the obligation to attend mass on Sunday.

The Sunday Mass from St Margaret of Scotland Church will be streamed on our website each weekend. Click the Announcement and Online Masses section on the opening page. It will take you to a link for the masses celebrated each day from St Agnes Cathedral as well as the Liturgies from St Margaret's.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You
are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

Faith Formation

Where are We on 1st Eucharist Planning?

While we have been given permission to again celebrate masses in the church building, there are a number of restriction having to do with "social distancing" with which we must comply. These greatly affect any possible First Communion Masses we might have. The capacity of the church building is now 70 seats as compared with the January capacity of over 600. There are only 8 rows usable on each side of the main aisle, from the front to the back. The photo at the right was taken during a recent meeting with our ushers. Note how far apart each usher must sit.

We continue to look at possible answers to the questions we have. We fully appreciate what a special celebration you and your child are hoping for. We await further governmental and Church clarifications for the joyful and special celebrations we all want for our parish and your children.

Guidelines for Attending Our Parish Masses

As we resume celebrating Saturday and Sunday, please keep these essential points in mind.

- The obligation to come to mass on Sunday and Holy Days of Obligation is on hold in our diocese due to the pandemic.
- Those at higher risk from COVID-19 (i.e. those over 65 years of age, those with sleep apnea, anyone with diabetes or heart disease, those who are overweight, and/or with any additional underlying health conditions), Should stay home, for their safety.
- And, of course, anyone who is not feeling well or anyone with a fever or a cough of any sort should not come to the church to attend Mass, for a visit or for any other ceremonies or purposes out of consideration of their fellow parishioners..

Limiting the Size of the Congregation & Safety Precautions

- All those in the church are required to wear a mask except those exempted by New York State directives
- Congregations for all our liturgies must be limited to 70. This may necessitate our turning parishioners away when we reached the mandated attendance number. We have ordered and await an fm transmitter to allow those who cannot be seated to listen to the Mass in their cars. Families and those who traveled to the church together sit together. All others must sit separately in the seats designated by the blue markings. To expedite seating, Ushers will oversee all seating. All are asked to sit where directed (it may well not be your regular seat).
- All entrances and exits are through the Front Doors.
The north and south steps are for emergency exit only.
- Physical distancing should be maintained everywhere on the church property (at the entrance, in the parking lot, etc.).
- In areas where the parishioners stand in line (for example, entering or exiting the church, or to receive Holy Communion), tape has been placed on the floor to help proper spacing between persons.
- Rest Room are for emergency use only.
- All missalettes and hymnals have been removed from the pews. Readings and any hymn verses needed will be shown on the screen in the sanctuary. Bulletins will be available to be picked up only after mass.
- Holy Water fonts are to remain empty. The Holy Water dispenser (tank) is available (near the lobby elevator) for people to take Holy Water home with them.
- Collection baskets will be in the lobby so that faithful can simply drop their collection into the basket on their way into church. Collection baskets will not be passed around.

The Distribution of Holy Communion

In order to reflect both the Church's great reverence for the Eucharist, while also providing appropriate precautions against infection, Bishop Barres has decided that Holy Communion in the Diocese of Rockville Centre will be distributed after Mass has ended.

- The Precious Blood will not be available to the faithful.
- The priest (and, if present, the deacon) will consume the Eucharist in the normal way.
- After the concluding blessing, the priest (and any other ministers distributing Holy Communion) will use hand sanitizer and mask or cloth face covering.
- The priest will invite the people to kneel and, holding up a single host, he says: "Behold the Lamb of God. Behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb." He then leads the people in saying: "Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word, and my soul shall be healed."

Guidelines continued

- The priest and other ministers (if present) proceed to the places prepared for distribution of Communion. A small table and kneeler will be placed at each communion station in the front of the church.
- All are asked to remain in their seats until directed by the ushers. Those who are receiving will be directed to a Communion Station. While those not receiving may exit, when directed. Those receiving should not remove their face covering until immediately before approaching the minister to receive Holy Communion, allowing their hands to be free. Holy Communion may not be distributed with gloves, nor may it be received in the hand if a member of the faithful is wearing gloves. At the Communion Station, they should extend their hands (non-writing hand on top of dominant hand). The minister will say, "The Body of Christ" and place the host on the extended hand. Use the dominant hand to place the Eucharist in your mouth and immediately replace your mask. You are welcome to return to your seat for a short prayer.
- Anyone requiring reception on the tongue will need to stand behind the kneeler at the station until the minister has completed distributing the Eucharist. Ministers must sanitize their hands for each distribution of the Eucharist on the tongue.

At the conclusion of the distribution of Holy Communion, the priest and any other ministers return the hosts to the tabernacle.

The priest/deacon will give the final dismissal, "Our Mass is ended..."

Offertory Support through ONLINE BILL PAY

ONLINE BILL PAY services will print an actual check and mail it to St. Margaret of Scotland. Sending your regular Offertory support electronically will save you time and money.

It is an easy way to continue your support of St. Margaret of Scotland Parish during this difficult time. Your Bank does not charge a fee for this service. You have complete control of your funds, starting, stopping and changing at your will. We have no access to your accounts, receiving only what you wish. If you pay your bills this way currently, you know how easy it is.

A special thank you to the parishioners who have been using envelopes. Please remember that the parish is not able to record your donation for tax purposes unless it is in an envelope. Thank you!
