Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

This year, the Solemnity of All Saints falls on a Sunday (the last time that happened was in 2015). It is providential in this pandemic year because it invites us to step back from the demands of our lives during this uncertain time to give thanks for the women and men, old and young, who were faithful to the Lord during their own time on Earth. Some lived in quiet times and appeared to have uneventful and simple lives. Others bore the burdens of tremendous suffering, whether due to natural causes or from the hostility of others. Whatever their situation, each of them had their own challenges and bore their own crosses. All Saints' Day lets us see that our "congregation" is not only those who are around us at Mass today in St. Margaret of Scotland. We are part of a larger fellowship connected over time.

The pandemic has reminded us of how connected we are in ways that are so basic we were not very conscious of them. The proximity to other people has become problematic. Ordinary day-to-day activities take on new meanings. Touching must be done carefully. Sneezing is no longer simply a reaction to a cold, but can release harmful viruses into the atmosphere. We are denied the simple pleasures of seeing people smile or be happy due to the masks we need to wear.

All Saints' Day reminds us of another kind of connection that we can so easily forget: with the believers who came before us. Certainly, family and friends have impacted our lives. But, more broadly, our ancestors in faith who kept their own relation with God alive and passed on the Spirit, allowed the Church community of today to witness to the presence of the Lord. The women and men whose stories have been in the bulletin during these past months are good examples of that. Let us appreciate their legacy and work to pass on the presence of the Lord in our own way. ~ Fr. Jim

RECONCILIATION / CONFESSION ~ Saturday ~ 1:00pm to 2:00pm

Due to the need for privacy without using an enclosed room, parishes have had to be creative in finding a suitable space for hearing confessions. We will be using the Parish Center foyer. The red front door will be propped open and a screen will be inside, between the priest and the penitent. There will be no chair or kneeler since we could not disinfect them.

You simply come in, stay standing, confess, receive your penance and depart.

If you see someone in the foyer, do not come up the walkway! Remain on the sidewalk (or in your car) to keep a safe distance.

ONE POSITION TO GO!

Please spread the word or let anyone you know that may be interested to contact the Parish Center.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

PRAY FOR OUR NATION

Thursdays from 7:30 to 8:30 PM
at St. Patrick Church
280 East Main Street in Smithtown

St. Patrick Parish in Smithtown invites you to join us in prayer and adoration on Thursday evenings from 7:30 to 8:30 PM in the church as we pray for our country. Please wear a facemask. Social distancing protocols will be observed.

Prayer before an Election

Lord God, as the election approaches, we seek to better understand the issues and concerns that confront our locality/state/country, and how the Gospel compels us to respond as faithful citizens.

We ask for eyes that are free from blindness so that we might see each other as brothers and sisters, one and equal in dignity, especially those who are victims of abuse and violence, deceit and poverty.

We ask for ears that will hear the cries of children unborn and those abandoned, as well as men and women oppressed because of race or creed, religion or gender.

We pray for discernment in mind and heart so that we may choose leaders who hear your Word, live your love, and keep in the ways of your truth as they follow in the steps of Jesus and his Apostles and guide us to your Kingdom of justice and peace.

We ask this in the name of your Son Jesus Christ and through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Sunday, Nov 01, 2020 SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS Get in the ring

Catholic activist Mary “Mother” Jones famously urged: “Pray for the dead—and fight like hell for the living.” She did both, especially fighting for miner’s rights and against child labor at the turn of the 20th century. Called the “most dangerous woman in America” for her clout with the laboring class, she spoke for those who weren’t heard. Mother Jones won’t ever be a saint on the books, but she did as saints do: listened carefully to the concerns of her times, then went in punching for the needs of the oppressed. Who needs your voice—and maybe your boxing skills? TODAY’S READINGS: Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14; 1 John 3:1-3; Matthew 5:1-12a (667). “They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.”

Monday, Nov 02 COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED (ALL SOULS’ DAY) It is well with my soul

This year, as we mourn the scores of those in our country and around the world who are dead from the pandemic, All Souls’ Day has a uniquely terrible gravity. We are not only grieving the loss of so many human lives but also the loss of what our lives were like before, and we are doing it without the same emotional support we might have had in physically closer times. Today is an opportunity to pray and remember, and acknowledge the deep sadness that is so important to the healing process. Invite the God of hope to wipe away your tears. TODAY’S READINGS: Wisdom 3:1-9; Romans 5:5-11 or Romans 6:3-9; John 6:37-40 (668). “Everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life.”

Tuesday, Nov 03 MEMORIAL OF MARTIN DE PORRES, RELIGIOUS Create healing and harmony

After the summer we’ve had, Martin de Porres is the perfect intercessor for the United States today, on Election Day. This famously humble Dominican friar, born of poverty and mixed racial background, is the patron saint of race relations and social justice. Plus, he trained as a doctor to hide an ability to perform miraculous cures. Ask for his help and healing to end our time of pandemic and social division. And ask to have a heart like his: “Everything, even sweeping, scraping vegetables, weeding a garden, and waiting on the sick could be a prayer, if it were offered to God.” TODAY’S READINGS: Philippians 2:5-11; Luke 14:15-24 (486). “Bring in here the poor and the crippled, the blind and the lame.”

Wednesday, Nov 04 MEMORIAL OF CHARLES BORROMEO, BISHOP Be bread for the world

During the early months of the COVID-19 pandemic, bishops dispensed Catholics from their Sunday obligation to attend Mass. While there were worries about the future of the Eucharist, some leaders found ways for parishioners to be the church in the world, helping the needy, feeding the hungry, and even doing such things as sending baked goods to local hospitals. During the plague of 1576, Cardinal Charles Borromeo took to the streets of Milan to feed the hungry, going into personal debt to do so. Patron saint of cardinals, seminarians, and catechists, Saint Charles pray for us until the day when it is safe for all to gather again to share in the Eucharist. TODAY’S READINGS: Philippians 2:12-18; Luke 14:25-33 (487). “Every one of you who does not renounce all . . . possessions cannot be my disciple.”

Thursday, Nov 05 Keep the conversation going

Have you ever had to rethink your life? Vocation is an ongoing conversation between you and God about how best to use your gifts, and sometimes a “reset” is necessary. Saint Paul refers to the years he spent persecuting the church as a loss in today’s first reading. He thought he was doing the right thing when he pushed to have Christians flogged. But he listened to God through dramatic events in his life and discerned that his calling was to join the Christians, eventually becoming their lead evangelizer. Keep the conversation between you and God going! TODAY’S READINGS: Philippians 3:3-8a; Luke 15:1-10 (488). “There will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people.”

Friday, Nov 06 No more scarring the Earth

Today marks the International Day for Preventing the Exploitation of the Environment in War. Just as human life is impacted and threatened by war, so too is our Earth. In 2003, archbishop of Dublin spoke with the U.S. bishops on today’s challenge of peace, saying: “The pursuit of peace—lasting peace based on justice—ought to be an environmental priority because the Earth itself bears the wounds and scars of war.” The bishops call the church to “help build bridges among the peace, justice, and environmental agendas and constituencies.” How can we do this in our own neighborhoods? How can we avoid war and bring justice and peace to the local environment in which we live? TODAY’S READINGS: Philippians 3:17—4:1; Luke 16:1-8 (489). “Prepare a full account of your stewardship.”

Saturday, Nov 07 OPTIONAL MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY Dare to love

In his papal letter “The Joy of Love,” Pope Francis speaks of the “tender gaze” with which Jesus looks on all. He might have learned this from Mary. In marriage, spouses learn to look at each other this tenderly, marveling at goodness even when youth and attractiveness fade, as Francis notes. Negotiating conflicts, seeing challenges as resolvable, and appreciating the “large nest” of extended family must have been skills Jesus gained by spending most of his life in such a setting. The pope suggests turning off mobile devices, creating conversation around the dining table. Can you and your loved ones take the challenge? TODAY’S READINGS: Philippians 4:10-19; Luke 16:9-15 (490). “The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones.”
