Dear Parishioners and Visitors, .”

Mark's Gospel is the first written down and closest to the period it describes: about 30 years after the fact. Tradition says that John Mark (who is mentioned in The Acts of the Apostles) was a companion of St. Peter and he based his Gospel on Peter's teachings. Compared to the other Gospels, Mark writes with an urgency and an immediacy that moves us along quickly. The story of Jesus's Baptism (Jan. 10), the calling of the Disciples (Jan. 24) and his first exorcism (today) come from the first chapter of the Gospel...and the chapter is not finished! The teaching of Jesus was confirmed by immediate action that did what he said it would do: reveal the Kingdom in our midst.

This kind of action is particular to Mark's gospel. Matthew's account contains the most teaching (75 percent) but spends only 9 percent of his narrative on healing. By contrast, 20 percent of Mark's Gospel is devoted to healings. Mark (and Peter?) viewed healing as a definitive part of the teaching of Jesus. Healings are the periods at the end of his sentences, so to speak. Healings are the aspect of teaching that break into time and prove everything Jesus is saying is for real. How do we live this gospel today? We too stand in the crowd around Jesus, hungry for truth amid deceptive and empty phrases. Jesus wanted to bring the Kingdom message to as many as possible as soon as he could. Do we bring our needs forward without hesitation or embarrassment? Do we trust that Kingdom is coming, right into our midst? ~Fr. Jim

PS. Speaking of things moving quickly, Lent begins early this year. Ash Wednesday is only two and a half weeks away (Feb 17)! As with many Church celebrations, there will be some necessary changes, but we will let you know in the coming weeks' bulletins.

RECONCILIATION / CONFESSION ~ Saturdays ~ 1:00pm to 2:00pm

Due to the need for privacy without using an enclosed room, we are using the Parish Center foyer. A screen divides the foyer between the priest and the penitent. There is no chair or kneeler since we could not disinfect them. You simply come in, stay standing, confess, receive your penance and depart.

In warm weather, the red front door is propped open. If you see someone in the foyer, do not come up the walkway! Remain on the sidewalk (or in your car) to keep a safe distance.

In cold weather, the door needs to stay closed.
Please knock and wait to be invited in.

2021 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

ROCKVILLE CENTRE

One Family in Mission
Creating Pathways to Faith

Pope Francis calls each of us to be instruments of Jesus' love and compassion to those in need. Journeying together with Long Island's faithful, we have the opportunity to act on this call through our support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA). When we support the CMA, we are working together to create pathways of love and compassion by providing programs that serve disadvantaged families, our senior citizens, those struggling with substance abuse and those in need of housing. Additionally, the Catholic Ministries Appeal helps lay paths of evangelization through the formation of our priests, deacons and lay leaders. It assists in training our religious education catechists and adult faith formation leaders who educate our youth and parish families, and programs that promote the sanctity of life at all stages. Working together, we are all enriching the lives of all Long Island.

100% of every dollar raised is restricted to serve the objectives, programs, and mission supported by the Catholic Ministries Appeal.

SUNDAY MASS ON ST. MARGARET'S WEBSITE

In addition to our weekend Masses, available at 5<sup>pm</sup> Saturday and 8<sup>am</sup>, 10<sup>am</sup> and Noon, the Sunday Mass continues to be streamed each weekend. There are two ways to watch it:

First, on our website WWW.SAINTMARGARET.COM. Click the "Learn More" link on the "Online Masses and Latest Bulletin" page. It will take you to an info page; click link for "Online Mass." All the Masses since March are available. (In addition to our Mass, there is a link for the masses celebrated each day from St Agnes Cathedral.)

Second, there is a St. Margaret of Scotland channel on YouTube. Go to the YouTube app, search for St. Margaret of Scotland and look for our logo. (There are other parishes with the same name.) Only the video for the current weekend is available.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You. ~ Amen.

Please do not leave clothing at our Thrift Shop entrance or our Parish Center doors. We do not have a Thrift Shop open to accommodate. You may take items to St. Gerard Majella on Terryville Rd., PJS or Resurrection Parish on Granny Road in Farmingville.

Thank you.

Emergency Care: Maximum Safety for Urgent and Emergent Needs

Catholic Health Heightened Safety Measures Protects Emergency Department Patients

Catholic Health Services (CHS) maintains the highest level of safety across its integrated health care system. We've elevated that stellar care as we battle COVID-19. This is critical, because even during a pandemic, people will have accidents or health issues requiring emergency care. CHS wants you to know our emergency departments (ED) are safe centers of care. In fact, CHS has been successfully treating patients across the system and performing emergency surgeries throughout this pandemic. Similarly, CHS has been delivering babies, protecting the well-being of both mother and child.

CHS has put extensive measures in place to prevent the spread of the COVID-19 virus—from intensive sanitization to safe social distancing to isolation of COVID-19 patients.

If you or a family member are experiencing any symptoms that may require emergency care, call 911 or drive directly to a CHS hospital. We're ready, safe and able to help you. You may also contact our ambulance partner, Hunter Ambulance by calling (516/631) 719-HELP.

Sunday, Jan 31, 2021 FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME Strengthen the partnership

The relationship between parishes and schools is long and intimate—important to note at the start of Catholic Schools Week. After the first Catholic diocese was established in the United States in Baltimore, pastors lobbied at once for schools and religious to staff them. Frontier pastors vowed to build the school first and the church later. They understood that without proper religious education, the parish venture would certainly fail. Today, celebrate this essential partnership with a holy hour, candlelight prayer vigil, or special project in the parish for young people and their supporters. TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 18:15-20; 1 Corinthians 7:32-35; Mark 1:21-28 (71). “What is this? A new teaching with authority.”

Monday, Feb 01 Example is the best education

Each day of Catholic Schools Week is the celebration of a component of Catholic education. Today we look at the experience of community. Through the relationships and interactions of service activities in the community and class trips to other environs, students get to practice the values they learn in their Catholic education and experience what it feels like to be making the world a better place. Plus they get a chance to observe others in community service and come to appreciate how they can continue caring for others their entire lives. Today, be an example of service to others. TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 11:32-40; Mark 5:1-20 (323). “[A]nnounce to them all that the Lord in his pity has done for you.”

Tuesday, Feb 02 FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD Teach a faith that grows on you

Mary and Joseph bring their beloved firstborn to the temple at the appointed time, so Jesus can enter into the covenant with Yahweh that Jews have revered since Abraham. Not unlike infant Baptism today, it was—among other things—a powerful ritual of belonging that put the child on the right path to growing in faith. As we celebrate Catholic Schools Week—with the focus today being squarely on “the student”—may we never forget or neglect the promise of every young soul, so receptive to our efforts to plant the seeds of faith. TODAY'S READINGS: Malachi 3:1-4; Hebrews 2:14-18; Luke 2:22-40 (524). “The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom.”

Wednesday, Feb 03 One nation, under God

Catholic schools have made a unique contribution to the nation, and today we can recognize and celebrate that contribution. At their very best, Catholic schools train students to grow both as members of the Catholic church and as productive citizens of the nation. By “rendering to Caesar and to God,” Catholic schools in the United States have managed to achieve that rare combination in world history, the development of a relatively harmonious church-state relationship that has endured for centuries. the NCEA website for suggestions on how to celebrate the nation during Catholic Schools Week. TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 12:4-7, 11-15; Mark 6:1-6 (325). “Many who heard him were astonished. They said, ‘Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him?’”

Thursday, Feb 04 Line things up

Catholic schools prepare students to discover their vocation, so they can grow to use their gifts in service of church and world. Over the years, our notion of “vocation” has broadened significantly. A word that once designated those who take religious vows or are ordained into ministry is now used more broadly. No one defined vocation better than essayist and theologian Carl Frederick Buechner: “The place God calls you to is the place where your deep gladness and the world’s deep hunger meet.” Are the two aligned in your life? And if not, how can you bring them into alignment? TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 12:18-19, 21-24; Mark 6:7-13 (326). “Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two.”

Friday, Feb 05 Thank those who opened your mind

Where would any of us be without our teachers? They did everything from helping us with our “three R’s” to opening our minds to new ways of seeing the world. The really great teachers taught us how to learn for ourselves and thus set us up for a lifetime of discovery and fulfillment. When was the last time you thanked a teacher? Today is the day Catholic Schools Week pays special attention to the faculty, staff, and volunteers that make it possible for these great schools to function. See NCEA website for suggestions on how to give thanks and recognition. TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 13:1-8; Mark 6:14-29 (327). “The Lord is my helper, and I will not be afraid.”

Saturday, Feb 06 Make faith a family affair

We close Catholic Schools Week by recognizing the central role in Catholic education played by the family. The Second Vatican Council called the family “the domestic church” because it is in the home that faith is first formed and nurtured. Whether you live alone or with others, your home can be a sacred space of prayer and spirituality. Creating sacred space in your home includes prayer and scripture readings at meal times and before bed; praying the Rosary; placing a crucifix in a prominent place; and family traditions based on the liturgical seasons. for ways to recognize the family’s role in Catholic education and also to make your home a domestic church. Have at it! TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 13:15-17, 20-21; Mark 6:30-34 (328). “The Apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught.”
