Time, Talent & Treasure

Stewardship Thought for the Week.

Pillar of Service: Living Stewardship :Sometimes, we tend to look at things with only our human understanding. The difficulties we face, may lead us to despair and doubt. We need to learn to trust in Jesus and believe that He can help us through any problem we face.

Sacrificial Giving

Thank you to all who so generously give to the support of our parish. You are returning to God what God has so generously given to you.

PARISH MEMBERSHIP: We welcome all new parishioners! We ask them to register at the Parish Center and encourage the use of weekly envelopes. If you are moving, please notify the office.

MARRIAGES: Couples should make arrangements in person at least one year in advance for required interview. At least one of the parties must live within the parish boundaries, or be a registered member of the parish. Please call the Parish Center for an appointment. No dates will be set over the telephone.

BAPTISMS: Prospective parents should telephone the Parish Center about three months before the expected birth to discuss the arrangements for your child's baptism. Health restrictions currently limit the number of babies at each ceremony, held the 1st and 3rd Sunday of the month. Some forms, the child's birth certificate and the godparent's "sponsor certificate" are needed (godparents must be Confirmed practicing Catholics) before a date can be finalized.

Please note the change of office hours due to COVID 19 Pandemic.

Family members, please resubmit names for those who are ill. We will list them for 4 weeks, and then remove them unless told otherwise. Please note—due to privacy issues, we can include names given by the individual or a health care proxy only. Thank you.

Beginning today and continuing for a total of five consecutive weeks, the Gospel that we listen to at Sunday Mass is taken from Saint John. All of the texts come from the same chapter of that Gospel too. It is Chapter 6 which contains the Bread of Life Discourse. It is a wonderful opportunity for us to reflect on the sublime power of the Eucharist in our lives.

I will use these Sundays to address key matters pertaining to the meaning of the Eucharist. The pastoral need for this is most pressing as there is much, much confusion in our midst about what the Eucharist means. Kindly join with me in focusing your attention over the next few weeks on what we believe about the Eucharist, and how we might bear testimony to this belief in the conduct of our lives.

For those of us who attend Mass regularly, the day of our First Holy Communion is likely a memory that we still retain. It is not so much the apparel we had on that day, but the awe which accompanied the act of receiving Jesus for the very first time. That awe still figures in how we think about the greatest of the seven Sacraments, or at least it should.

The Eucharist is indeed awesome. And the awesomeness of it does not wane even though we may have received the Sacrament thousands and thousands of times in a lifetime. We have definitely aged and perhaps given in too easily to routine but Christ is always new because grace is always new. Saint Augustine said in reference to the faith that it is ever ancient, ever new. So is the Eucharist. Its origin is in antiquity but its newness is in its indefatigable celebration daily. Let us not forget that as we embark on a weeks-long meditation on the Eucharist together.

Parish Updates

Lectors are reminded that the procession and recession at weekend Masses have been restored. Kindly join in unless there is something preventing you from participating.

The “filmed” Mass is discontinued due to staffing issues. We encourage all parishioners to join with us now in person for Mass every week in the church building.

Confessions are heard on Saturday afternoons in the church at 4:00 PM. Kindly remember that the confessor is usually the celebrant of the 5:00 PM Mass, and penitents should be aware that the priest is going to leave the confessional/reconciliation room at 4:45 PM.

Beginning today (July 25th) and continuing until the last day of this month, the Church observes NFP Awareness Week. It is an opportunity to learn more about natural family planning, the way for married couples to live the Church’s sexual ethic found in the encyclical Humanae Vitae (1968). We hail those spouses who teach fertility awareness to engaged and married couples as part of the Church’s teaching on the sanctity of human life beginning at conception. We are grateful for their witness and we encourage all Catholics to learn more about this apostolate by going to the diocesan website or the website of the United States Catholic Conference.

Answer to last week’s question: Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton was the first American born canonized saint and the Order she founded was the Sisters of Charity.

This week’s question: Georgetown University in Washington, D.C. is the oldest Catholic college in the United States. Its school colors are blue and gray. Why these two colors?

LOOKING THROUGH EYES OF LOVE

L.I. Women's Retreat Ministry Invites You

To our Annual Retreat
At St. Joseph's Villa
Hampton Bays, N.Y.
September 10 - 12, 2021

Guest Speaker - Patti Gordon

Celebrant - Rev. Robert Kline

Sisters in Christ,

The Lenten season has ended but our journey continues with Christ in the Center of our hearts.

Our journey has had many challenges. Not being able to be with family and friends; gathering at church; postponed events, etc. Not knowing what God's plan was for us in this situation must have been quite overwhelming. Looking at the glass half full, I grew in technology, using Zoom and Duo to communicate with others! However, and most importantly, my relationship with Jesus has grown immensely, especially during those quiet times. Meeting virtually with my fellow sisters in Christ has also deepened our friendship while growing in the knowledge of God's Word. It bears repeating that we can be confident that no matter our circumstances or what is happening in the world around us, God has a master plan because of His Love for us. By His Grace we continue "to hold fast to what is good...." 1st Thessalonians 5:21

Jesus transforms us to see through the filter of His love. Jesus said "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you." John 15:12 Jesus is the light and we bloom in spite of the darkness that surrounds us. The Holy Spirit is constantly working in our lives even when we are not aware of it. By putting our trust in God, His Word and His Promises and keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus, we are being guided by the Light that goes before us. Love is alive!

For over 16 years, our retreats were held at the Montfort Spiritual Center in Bay Shore and we have had many wonderful experiences. It is with sadness that the Center is closed, but God always has a plan. The Holy Spirit led us to St. Joseph's Villa in Hampton Bays and we are looking forward to gathering again at this year's retreat.

We are excited to have Patti Gordon as our Guest Speaker this year. She is a Spiritual Director and has been given the privilege of witnessing God's love and healing in the lives of others. She also serves with Bridge for Peace through healing, prayer, missions and retreats. Her joy is bringing the Word of God to life through drama and dance. Patti is married with four children and seven grandchildren.

Do not miss this opportunity for an uplifting and fulfilling experience!

Sunday, Jul 25, 2021 SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME Celebrate mom-and-pop operations

However few dollars there are, parents make them stretch until payday. However uncertain the way ahead, they shoulder the decision-making for their brood. However dark the night and scary the storm, parents hug their little ones through it. Today our nation celebrates Parents' Day, honoring the grownups who make children's lives safer, happier, and healthier. While they may not multiply loaves and fishes quite like Jesus, parents do perform minor miracles of sufficiency every day across this country. They take imperfect human love and weave a blanket of protection and possibility for their tribe. Support your local parents! TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 4:42-44; Ephesians 4:1-6; John 6:1-15 (110). "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted."

Monday, Jul 26 MEMORIAL OF JOACHIM AND ANNE, PARENTS OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY Family ties

Jesus' ancestry through Joseph is extensively traced in two of the gospels, but there's nothing there about his maternal line. The names of his grandparents—Mary's parents—aren't mentioned in scripture, but tradition has dubbed them Joachim and Anne. Whatever their names were, they had to have been remarkable people to have raised the mother of God. The courage and faith they passed on to Mary is a precious gift all parents can pass to their children. Treasure your own intergenerational bonds. TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 32:15-24, 30-34; Matthew 13:31-35 (401). "The birds of the sky come and dwell in its branches."

Tuesday, Jul 27 Parables of trying and trust

Jesus favored parables—short allegories featuring people, places, and things familiar to ordinary listeners—to get his point across. Typically, they were about the kingdom of God, standing in stark contrast to the current world. "The kingdom of God, even if it requires our cooperation, is firstly a gift of the Lord," Pope Benedict XVI reminded pilgrims in 2012. Not that humans shouldn't lift a finger. Such parables, Benedict said, echo a famous saying from Ignatius of Loyola: "Act as if everything depended on you; trust as if everything depended on God." Where do you need to trust God more and where, perhaps, do you need to act? TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 33:7-11; 34:5b-9, 28; Matthew 13:36-43 (402). "Whoever has ears ought to hear."

Wednesday, Jul 28 Stay the course

Father Stanley Rother is one step away from canonization and being named publicly as a saint of the Catholic Church. Born in Oklahoma in 1935, ordained a priest in 1963, missioned to Guatemala in 1968, Rother immersed himself among the Tz'ujil Mayan communities. When civil war broke out and his name appeared on a death list, after briefly departing he decided to return, saying, the "shepherd cannot run." On July 28, 1981, three men entered the rectory where he lived and killed him. Now recognized as a martyr for the faith, Rother was beatified by the Vatican in 2016. As we await the canonization of this first American martyr, pray that you, too, might be a sign of Christ's love to the people close to you, even when it comes at a cost. TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 34:29-35; Matthew 13:44-46 (403). "When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it."

Thursday, Jul 29 MEMORIAL OF MARTHA, MARY, AND LAZARUS Lesson learned

Any memorial honoring Saint Martha, along with her sister and brother, includes a well-deserved nod to those who quietly serve. But Martha's role in salvation history goes well beyond her hospitality to Jesus and lies in the example of her maturing faith. When Jesus admonished her about her anxiety, Martha listened. She grew in wisdom and understanding, so much so that when her brother Lazarus dies, she runs to meet Jesus and declares: "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you." Martha provides an inspiration to all of us to persevere in knowing God, loving Christ, and serving others. TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 40:16-21, 34-38 (404); John 11:19-27 or Luke 10:38-42 (607). "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing."

Friday, Jul 30 Open the door to your own ministry

Do you ever think about your daily activities as a ministry? No activity is outside the realm of a possible ministry. Take Blessed Solanus Casey, for example. One of Solanus' jobs was as a porter, that is, a door keeper. Open/shut case, right? Not at all! Solanus understood his simple job as being a true ministry, service of God through service of others. He did not merely answer the door; he opened his heart to everyone who entered. In doing so, Solanus was able to reflect God's love and healing to others in a way that truly made a difference. How do you open your heart to others during your daily routine? TODAY'S READINGS: Leviticus 23:1, 4-11, 15-16, 27, 34b-37; Matthew 13:54-58 (405). "Is he not the carpenter's son?"

Saturday, Jul 31 MEMORIAL OF IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA, PRIEST Book your biblical excursion

Never underestimate the power of a book to change lives or history. Ignatius of Loyola was a young Spanish soldier from a prominent military family. While recovering from a serious war injury, he came upon Vita Christi, a spiritual biography of the life of Christ by 14th-century German Catholic monk Ludolph of Saxony. In the book he found the meditative technique of immersing oneself in a biblical scene from the life of Jesus. The book changed Ignatius' life, and the technique became foundational to the development of Ignatian spirituality and the famed Spiritual Exercises. Try the technique: Open a gospel, read a story, and place yourself at the scene. Really be there. See what happens. TODAY'S READINGS: Leviticus 25:1, 8-17; Matthew 14:1-12 (406). "This fiftieth year you shall make sacred by proclaiming liberty in the land for all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you."

Pope Francis has declared December 2020 ~ December 2021 as The Year of St. Joseph

Born in 1845, St. Andre Bessette was known as the “Miracle Worker of Montreal” He was instrumental in the construction of the Basilica of St. Joseph’s Oratory in Montreal, Canada and promoted an efficacious love for and devotion to St. Joseph in his practical deeds of daily charity as a doorkeeper. As a doorkeeper at a Holy Cross Catholic school in Montreal, Brother André opened the door to Jesus Christ every time he opened the door physically for the students, families, and Cross-carriers he encountered.

We have a number of Doorkeeper Saints in the history of our Catholic Church that meditated, prayed, contemplated and lived these biblical passages on doors. They include the Jesuit brother St. Alphonsus Rodriguez (1532-1617), the Dominican brother St. Martin de Porres (1579-1639), and the simplex Capuchin priest Blessed Solanus Casey (1870-1957) These Doorkeeper Saints who opened the door to Christ and greeted Christ as they listened to and served suffering humanity, encourage us to reflect on the doors in our own lives and how we open them to others. As these Doorkeeper Saints opened physical doors to Catholic schools, monasteries, and residences, they did so with exquisite reverence for the people which the opened door revealed, though the crowds and long lines often led to exhaustion.

Reflect for a moment on the door of the home you grew up in and all the traffic that went in and out of it. Reflect on the door of where you live now. Reflect on your room door or your office door. Reflect, in these Covid-19 times, on the door or portal of the computer you use every day. How do we answer the doors of life? As we open these doors, do we greet Christ and the person representing Christ with warmth, openness, steadfast charity, humility, and magnanimity?

As we answer the doors of life, are we accompanied by St. Joseph and the Holy Family, striving to greet Jesus Christ in every providential dimension of humanity that the Holy Spirit sends to us?

In every door-opening moment, St. André Bessette opened the door to Jesus Christ with the help, assistance, and intercession of his friend St. Joseph.

He sought the intercession of St. Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Guardian of the Holy Family, and model for all husbands, fathers, and family members. St. André sought the intercession of St. Joseph, the Dreamer and Contemplative, and asked St. Joseph to intercede for his prayer life and the prayer lives of those he served.

He sought the intercession of St. Joseph the Worker, who teaches us to give Glory to God in the sanctification of every detail of daily work.

St. André sought the intercession of St. Joseph, the Just Man – faith-filled, rock-solid, mature, reliable, constant, hardworking, contemplative, and prayerful, always trusting in God as he faced the most difficult and perplexing situations and curve balls of life.

As we remember and celebrate the stories and vast panorama of spiritual, physical, and emotional healings of which St. André Bessette and St. Joseph together were God’s humble instruments, we “go to Joseph” in the Year of St. Joseph. We ask their intercession to help us pray, deepen our daily charity, and open every door in life to Jesus Christ and the neighbors he sends to us.

Bishop John Barres ~ Condensed from the LI Catholic 2/2021
