Stewardship Thought for the Week.

Pillar of Service: Living Stewardship :Sometimes, we tend to look at things with only our human understanding. The difficulties we face, may lead us to despair and doubt. We need to learn to trust in Jesus and believe that He can help us through any problem we face.

Readings for Next Sunday

Twenty First Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading.....Jos 24: 1-2a,15-17,18b

Second Reading .....Eph 5:21-32

Gospel.....Jn 6: 60-69

PARISH MEMBERSHIP: We welcome all new parishioners! We ask them to register at the Parish Center and encourage the use of weekly envelopes. If you are moving, please notify the office.

MARRIAGES: Couples should make arrangements in person at least one year in advance for required interview. At least one of the parties must live within the parish boundaries, or be a registered member of the parish. Please call the Parish Center for an appointment. No dates will be set over the telephone.

BAPTISMS: Prospective parents should telephone the Parish Center about three months before the expected birth to discuss the arrangements for your child’s baptism. Health restrictions currently limit the number of babies at each ceremony, held the 1st and 3rd Sunday of the month. Some forms, the child’s birth certificate and the godparent’s “sponsor certificate” are needed (godparents must be Confirmed practicing Catholics) before a date can be finalized.

Please note the change of office hours due to COVID 19 Pandemic.

Family members, please resubmit names for those who are ill. We will list them for 4 weeks, and then remove them unless told otherwise. Please note-due to privacy issues, we can include names given by the individual or a health care proxy only. Thank you.

For the last three consecutive weeks, we have heard passages from the Sixth Chapter of Saint John's Gospel at Mass. We will hear the fourth and final passage next Sunday. Today though, we have a Marian Holy Day of Obligation, the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

We commemorate how Our Lady made following her Son complete by going to heaven without her body and soul ever undergoing corruption. Corruption comes from sin, and the Blessed Mother was without sin. The sinlessness of the Fairest One in the human race extends to her body because her will is so thoroughly conformed to the divine will.

Above all, the Assumption reminds us of endings – not least being the end which comes when we breathe our last on earth. It makes other endings – like the one bringing a close to our summer vacation – seem easy to shake off without much regret or misgivings. After all, it matters little in the long run if we got to the beach three times or four times before Labor Day. It matters much more that we stopped more than a few times this summer to give thanks to God for the gift of time, that we used that gift well in anticipation of when clocks and calendars are of no use to us – in eternity, that is.

In today's gospel, Mary cries out, "My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord." (Lk 1:46) God is indeed great and all that He has created reflects that greatness. Our greatness reaches its fulness – its blessedness if you will – in the end, when we come face-to-face with the God Who created us. And that is why conferring greatness on ourselves is so unseemly if God does not do it for us at the end of our lives.

In the Magnificat, Mary is right to refer to herself as a "lowly servant." (Lk 1:48) In her lowliness, she does not have a poor self-image; no, she holds an honest self-appraisal. For she knows that it is the Lord Who lifts up the lowly. (Lk 1:52) Were we to lift ourselves up, we would wind up disqualifying ourselves from serving in a Kingdom not of this world. (cf. Jn 18:36)

O Mary, pray for us now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Msgr. Batule
Pastor

We Gather...

We invite all lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion to join us on Wednesday, September 8th at 7:00 PM for a Holy Hour in church. There will be Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and it will conclude with Benediction at 8:00 PM.

Following the Holy Hour, there will be a meeting to review procedures and practices in the basement of the parish center building. We will finish by 9:00 PM.

Parish Updates

Beginning the 1st of September, the office in the parish center will have new hours. As of this new date, the office is open from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Thursday and 9:00 AM to 1:00 PM on Friday. Please make note of the new and expanded hours for serving the parishioners of Saint Margaret.

Starting September 1st, the donation for announced masses and unannounced masses will be $20.00. The increase is to meet the diocesan norm of $20.00, which has been at this rate for more than several years. We are grateful that you remember deceased loved ones through the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Please continue this meritorious practice.

We invite you to visit the grotto in honor of Our Lady on church property. It has been beautified with new plantings and reflects an inspiring devotion to the Mother of God. We are grateful for the work done there and trust that many parishioners will be drawn to it for prayer and recollection. Thank you!

We are returning to the ordinary way of distributing Holy Communion at weekend and daily Masses. Kindly allow worshippers in the pews closest to the sanctuary to approach for the reception of Holy Communion first. This coincides with the return of the distribution of Holy Communion in the center aisle. This goes into effect on the weekend following Labor Day (September 11th and 12th).

Sunday, Aug 15 SOLEMNITY OF THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY Some assumptions prove true

Catholicism acknowledges twin sources in scripture and tradition. While our faith is biblically rooted, we embrace an expanding truth discerned by saints and mystics, church doctors, and popes. Mary's Assumption isn't narrated in the gospels and wasn't taught dogmatically until 1950. It evolved from the second-century appreciation of Mary as the New Eve: preserved from sin at conception and therefore not subject to sin's effects in death. Liturgists, saints, and theologians promoted the Assumption for centuries, and devout Catholics championed this understanding. Finally, Pope Pius XII bowed to the "sense of the faithful" and made it official in 1950. TODAY'S READINGS: Vigil: 1 Chronicles 15:3-4, 15-16; 16:1-2; 1 Corinthians 15:54b-57; Luke 11:27-28 (621); Day: Revelation 11:19a; 12:1-6a, 10ab; 1 Corinthians 15:20-27; Luke 1:39-56 (622). "A great sign appeared in the sky, a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon beneath her feet."

Monday, Aug 16 MEMORIAL OF STEPHEN OF HUNGARY Concern yourself with the greatest Kingdom

Royal families are typically concerned about succession and making sure they have an heir. They want their lineage to survive them. Many monarchs eventually failed at that, including King Saint Stephen I of Hungary, who founded the country in the year 1000 and made it Christian. Only one of his sons lived to adulthood but died before Stephen did. What Stephen did leave behind is a country that is still majority Catholic. We might not be remembered for sowing faith long into the future here on Earth—but if we remain faithful, we could end up with royal treasure in heaven. TODAY'S READINGS: Judges 2:11-19; Matthew 19:16-22 (419). "Teacher, what good must I do to gain eternal life?"

Tuesday, Aug 17 Pray for the persecuted

On this day in 1798, Our Lady of La Vang first appeared to Vietnamese victims of persecution. When Vietnam's emperor outlawed Catholicism, inciting brutality and martyrdom, believers fled to the rain forest of La Vang. They sought Mary's consolation, gathering beneath a large tree to pray the Rosary. They began seeing an apparition of Mother and Child, flanked by angels. She comforted them and is said to have pointed out nearby healing plants. Our Lady of La Vang is honored in the United States with a chapel at the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception. Ask her to intercede for victims of racist hate. TODAY'S READINGS: Judges 6:11-24a; Matthew 19:23-30 (420). "We have given up everything and followed you."

Wednesday, Aug 18 Let's work on making work better

The U.S. Catholic Bishops have spoken on The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers, saying in part: "The economy must serve people, not the other way around. Work is more than a way to make a living . . . . If the dignity of work is to be protected, then the basic rights of workers must be respected—the right to productive work, to decent and fair wages . . . ." Food for thought at a time when workers' reluctance to return to low-paid, unfulfilling jobs is much in the news. Is the problem with the worker—or the workplace? TODAY'S READINGS: Judges 9:6-15; Matthew 20:1-16 (421). "Are you envious because I am generous? Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last."

Thursday, Aug 19 MEMORIAL OF JOHN EUDES, PRIEST Take this devotion to heart

The Sacred Heart of Jesus image is ubiquitous in the Catholic world, and today we celebrate one of the people who helped create a devotion to it, John Eudes, a French priest (1601-80), who also founded the Eudists, the Congregation of Jesus and Mary. The Sacred Heart image is a heart encircled by a crown of thorns often depicted with radiating rays of light and placed on the chest of Jesus. The image is physical and mystical, a reminder of Christ's bodily sacrifice and mysterious in its supernatural appearance. Seek out this image and allow it to shape your prayer today. TODAY'S READINGS: Judges 11:29-39a; Matthew 22:1-14 (422). "Everything is ready; come to the feast."

Friday, Aug 20 MEMORIAL OF BERNARD, ABBOT, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH All hail Doctor Mellifluous

No, Mellifluous is not the newest superhero villain; it's a title for one of the greatest heroes of the Roman Catholic faith. Bernard of Clairvaux earned the nickname because his writings were eloquent, as suggested by the Latin root of his nickname: "flowing honey." This gift was founded on his deep love of God, scripture, and the church's tradition. His description of the Holy Spirit as the "kiss" between God the Father and Jesus the Son gives us a beautiful example of how to image the relationship of love among the three persons of the Trinity. Following in the good doctor's footsteps, how have you experienced the kiss of the Holy Spirit in your own relationships? TODAY'S READINGS: Ruth 1:1, 3-6, 14b-16, 22; Matthew 22:34-40 (423). "For wherever you go, I will go, wherever you lodge I will lodge, your people shall be my people, and your God my God."

Saturday, Aug 21 MEMORIAL OF PIUS X, POPE The year of living humbly

Prior to COVID-19, plagues mentioned in history books seemed like remote disasters that only happened in times and places where rats roamed streets filled with sewage. Now that we've been humbled by our continued vulnerability to unseen agents of disease and death, perhaps we can bring a renewed appreciation to Pius X, who endeared himself to the people of northern Italy because of his efforts tending the sick during the cholera plague of the early 1870s. Take a moment this week to thank someone who has tended the sick during our very modern plague. TODAY'S READINGS: Ruth 2:1-3, 8-11; 4:13-17; Matthew 23:1-12 (424). "The greatest among you must be your servant."

LOOKING THROUGH EYES OF LOVE

L.I. Women's Retreat Ministry Invites You

To our Annual Retreat
At St. Joseph's Villa
Hampton Bays, N.Y.
September 10 - 12, 2021

Guest Speaker - Patti Gordon

Celebrant - Rev. Robert Kline

Sisters in Christ,

The Lenten season has ended but our journey continues with Christ in the Center of our hearts.

Our journey has had many challenges. Not being able to be with family and friends; gathering at church; postponed events, etc. Not knowing what God's plan was for us in this situation must have been quite overwhelming. Looking at the glass half full, I grew in technology, using Zoom and Duo to communicate with others! However, and most importantly, my relationship with Jesus has grown immensely, especially during those quiet times. Meeting virtually with my fellow sisters in Christ has also deepened our friendship while growing in the knowledge of God's Word. It bears repeating that we can be confident that no matter our circumstances or what is happening in the world around us, God has a master plan because of His Love for us. By His Grace we continue "to hold fast to what is good...." 1st Thessalonians 5:21

Jesus transforms us to see through the filter of His love. Jesus said "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you." John 15:12 Jesus is the light and we bloom in spite of the darkness that surrounds us. The Holy Spirit is constantly working in our lives even when we are not aware of it. By putting our trust in God, His Word and His Promises and keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus, we are being guided by the Light that goes before us. Love is alive!

For over 16 years, our retreats were held at the Montfort Spiritual Center in Bay Shore and we have had many wonderful experiences. It is with sadness that the Center is closed, but God always has a plan. The Holy Spirit led us to St. Joseph's Villa in Hampton Bays and we are looking forward to gathering again at this year's retreat.

We are excited to have Patti Gordon as our Guest Speaker this year. She is a Spiritual Director and has been given the privilege of witnessing God's love and healing in the lives of others. She also serves with Bridge for Peace through healing, prayer, missions and retreats. Her joy is bringing the Word of God to life through drama and dance. Patti is married with four children and seven grandchildren.

Do not miss this opportunity for an uplifting and fulfilling experience!
