Stewardship Thought for the Week.

Pillar of Service: Living Stewardship :Sometimes, we tend to look at things with only our human understanding. The difficulties we face, may lead us to despair and doubt. We need to learn to trust in Jesus and believe that He can help us through any problem we face.

Sacrificial Giving

Thank you to all who so generously give to the support of our parish. You are returning to God what God has so generously given to you.

Family members, please resubmit names for those who are ill. We will list them for 4 weeks, and then remove them unless told otherwise. Please note-due to privacy issues, we can include names given by the individual or a health care proxy only. Thank you.

After a week's hiatus, we return to Saint John's Gospel, Chapter Six. The passage we hear at Mass this weekend is the last part of the Chapter in question. It finishes off Jesus' presentation that He is the Bread of Life. As you know, on three previous weekends (before the Solemnity of Our Lady's Assumption), we had occasion to reflect on themes related to the Holy Eucharist which are suggested by the Bread of Life discourse. I would now like to add the fourth and final reflection on the Eucharist before we return to Saint Mark's Gospel.

Already, we have given consideration to the Eucharist and charity; the Eucharist and Real Presence and Transubstantiation and pastoral observations around the Eucharist. To complete this four-part series, I am proposing that we think about our personal devotion to the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood. I want to cover this dimension of the Eucharist because Catholic spirituality, including Eucharistic spirituality, is never just an academic exercise. It always is a matter of living the faith, living what has been revealed by God Himself in the course of salvation history.

Faith in the Eucharist shows itself in a genuine commitment to certain behaviors and attitudes which are connected to the great sacrament itself. Therefore, what I will do is offer some questions for us to ask of ourselves so that we may gauge our own Eucharistic commitment.

Has my weekly attendance at Mass given me a true longing to be with Christ now and for all eternity?

As a parent, how well have I passed along my faith in the Eucharist to my children in their formative years?

Do I participate in Eucharistic communion with due regard for a sacramental confession of my sins?

Do I share in Eucharistic communion with a clear and unburdened conscience?

Do I have a reverence and piety which accord with the Eucharistic Mystery?

Obviously, these are not all the questions we might pose to ourselves when it comes to the Holy Eucharist. But they are a start for we never want to take the Holy Eucharist for granted. Saint Paul has this in mind when he treats the Sacrament in his First Letter to the Corinthians. He writes there that we are to receive the Eucharist worthily. (cf. 1 Cor. 11:27). And, thus, the apostle calls for examining ourselves with discernment. (cf. 1 Cor. 11:28-29)

Let us ever be renewed by the Lord's Gift of Himself to us. May our receptions of His Body and Blood always bring about a pining in our souls for the glory of heaven.

Msgr. Batule
Pastor

Sunday, Aug 22, 2021 TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME Who do you serve?

Songwriter Bob Dylan had a come-to-Jesus moment in 1978 in a hotel room in Tucson, Arizona. More accurately, it seemed like Jesus came to him, as he felt “a presence in the room that couldn’t have been anybody but Jesus.” For four years, Dylan wrote songs critics panned as “God-awful gospel,” and fans mourned the loss of what they’d come to expect from him. By 1981, Dylan had returned to his Jewish and folk-rock roots. Yet he never retracted his vision: “Well, it may be the devil, or it may be the Lord, but you gotta serve somebody.” The choice remains ours. TODAY’S READINGS: Joshua 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b; Ephesians 5:21-32; John 6:60-69 (122). “If it does not please you to serve the LORD, decide today whom you will serve.”

Monday, Aug 23 MEMORIAL OF ROSE OF LIMA, VIRGIN Family finesse

Parents have expectations of their kids, and kids want to make their own choices—it’s part of the painful growing-up process. Rose of Lima was like a lot of teenagers who clashed with her parents about her future, and she was like a lot of saints who rankled family by refusing to marry. They never let her join a convent, but they didn’t force her to wed either, finally relenting to her choice of chastity. She lived out her brief life as she had wished, in prayer and penance. She is the patron saint of family problems. Everyone has them, so ask Rose for help. TODAY’S READINGS: 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5, 8b-10; Matthew 23:13-22 (425). “One who swears by heaven swears by the throne of God.”

Tuesday, Aug 24 FEAST OF BARTHOLOMEW, APOSTLE Play a stirring role

Bartholomew, also called Nathanael, was one of the original 12 apostles and later, a traveling missionary. He embodied what it means to become a missionary disciple—one who, upon being led to Jesus, wishes to lead others to him, too. As the U.S. bishops say in Go and Make Disciples, Jesus “gave the Church the unending task of evangelizing as a restless power, to stir and to stimulate.” Where can you stir interest in Jesus today? TODAY’S READINGS: Revelation 21:9b-14; John 1:45-51 (629). “Rabbi, you are the Son of God; you are the King of Israel.”

Wednesday, Aug 25 The past is present

Today, we are becoming aware of the deep truth that wrongs committed in the past, even generations ago, can still perpetuate evil. Such is the sin of racism, which the U.S. Catholic Bishops have repeatedly called “an evil which endures in our society and in our Church” (and Sisters to Us). Each of us is called to help dismantle racism, to reject profiting from the oppression of others, and to listen to the voices of those who have been silenced too long—for the sake of our past, present, and future. TODAY’S READINGS: 1 Thessalonians 2:9-13; Matthew 23:27-32 (427). “You are like whitewashed tombs.”

Thursday, Aug 26 Be alert!

Wakefulness is a term often used in spiritual writing. In today’s gospel, Jesus tells his disciples, “Stay awake! You do not know on which day your Lord will come.” The of the Catholic Church contains at least 20 references to being awake, usually in regard to “awakening faith.” The church wants its members to be vigilant and tells us in the catechism that the “Holy Spirit constantly seeks to awaken us to keep watch!” Ask the Holy Spirit to help you awaken to God’s presence today. TODAY’S READINGS: 1 Thessalonians 3:7-13; Matthew 24:42-51 (428). “Jesus said to his disciples: ‘Stay awake!’”

Friday, Aug 27 MEMORIAL OF MONICA Hang in there

Sometimes it feels like all of our small choices and actions will never amount to anything. Go big or go home, we’re told. Yet the stuff of transformation, healing, and love is knitted together one small thing at a time. Our call is to have faith and persist. Take a look at Saint Monica, a laywoman from North Africa, who day in and day out offered “small” acts of kindness, love, and care for her beloved yet wayward son Augustine. She never tired of believing in him, even storming heaven on his behalf. Persisting in the small things that are good, beautiful, and true can make a big difference. What small things are you called to persist in? TODAY’S READINGS: 1 Thessalonians 4:1-8; Matthew 25:1-13 (429). “Stay awake.”

Saturday, Aug 28 MEMORIAL OF AUGUSTINE, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH Let happiness be your song

Like all larger-than-life historical figures, Saint Augustine and his legacy are subject to debate. Some find in his vast work reason to take a pessimistic view of humanity. But he was quite life-affirming in his conviction that the happiness found in following God is indeed the only worthy and lasting happiness. “Happy is [the one] who has God,” he succinctly put it. To “have” God for Augustine meant to love God, citing Psalm 72: “For me it is good to cling to God.” Or, as Pharrell Williams put it in his blockbuster song “Happy” a few years back, “Clap along if you feel like happiness is the truth.” TODAY’S READINGS: 1 Thessalonians 4:9-11; Matthew 25:14-30 (430). “You yourselves have been taught by God to love one another.”

LOOKING THROUGH EYES OF LOVE

L.I. Women's Retreat Ministry
Invites You

To our Annual Retreat
At St. Joseph's Villa
Hampton Bays, N.Y.
September 10 - 12, 2021

Guest Speaker - Patti Gordon

Celebrant - Rev. Robert Kline

Sisters in Christ,

The Lenten season has ended but our journey continues with Christ in the Center of our hearts.

Our journey has had many challenges. Not being able to be with family and friends; gathering at church; postponed events, etc. Not knowing what God's plan was for us in this situation must have been quite overwhelming. Looking at the glass half full, I grew in technology, using Zoom and Duo to communicate with others! However, and most importantly, my relationship with Jesus has grown immensely, especially during those quiet times. Meeting virtually with my fellow sisters in Christ has also deepened our friendship while growing in the knowledge of God's Word. It bears repeating that we can be confident that no matter our circumstances or what is happening in the world around us, God has a master plan because of His Love for us. By His Grace we continue "to hold fast to what is good...." 1st Thessalonians 5:21

Jesus transforms us to see through the filter of His love. Jesus said "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you." John 15:12 Jesus is the light and we bloom in spite of the darkness that surrounds us. The Holy Spirit is constantly working in our lives even when we are not aware of it. By putting our trust in God, His Word and His Promises and keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus, we are being guided by the Light that goes before us. Love is alive!

For over 16 years, our retreats were held at the Montfort Spiritual Center in Bay Shore and we have had many wonderful experiences. It is with sadness that the Center is closed, but God always has a plan. The Holy Spirit led us to St. Joseph's Villa in Hampton Bays and we are looking forward to gathering again at this year's retreat.

We are excited to have Patti Gordon as our Guest Speaker this year. She is a Spiritual Director and has been given the privilege of witnessing God's love and healing in the lives of others. She also serves with Bridge for Peace through healing, prayer, missions and retreats. Her joy is bringing the Word of God to life through drama and dance. Patti is married with four children and seven grandchildren.
