Today's Gospel teaches us to live with an "attitude of gratitude." God has given us so many blessings, sometimes we forget to turn back and thank Him. This week in your daily prayers, remember to thank God for all He has done for you.

Sacrificial Giving

Thank you to all who so generously give to the support of our parish.
You are returning to God what God has so generously given to you.

Despite winning 101 regular season games, the Mets were eliminated in the first round of the MLB playoffs by the San Diego Padres. It's up to the Yankees then to keep a New York team in playoff contention. The Yankees, as you probably know, won 99 regular season games and finished first in the American League Eastern Division. First up for the Yankees is a five-game series with the Guardians of Cleveland. Go New York!

This weekend, catechists from Saint Margaret will be honored at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church in Patchogue for their service. Later in the year, more catechists will be recognized. Watch the bulletin for details.

The Mass Book for 2023 is open on Monday, October 24th at 9:00 AM in the parish center. There are no limitations on the number of Masses you may reserve at that time.

You are encouraged to have relatives and friends remembered at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass on weekends and during the week. There isn't a better way to remember a loved one than praying that he or she be in the company of the Lord for all eternity.

In recent weeks, we have had one or more days per week without a Mass Intention. Please consider relatives and friends on their birthdays or days of death with a remembrance at Mass.

Just two more sessions remain in our Enrichment Evenings for catechists and all interested parishioners. We meet on the 17th and the 24th. On the 17th, we take up a consideration of morality and the 24th, we take up a consideration of the sacraments.

Next Sunday, the 23rd, the Church marks World Mission Sunday. You are invited to pray for the Church's work in mission lands. Now every land is a mission land, even where the Church has been present for a long time. It used to be that lands where the Church was well-established would send missionaries to areas where the Church was young and growing. Now, it is the lands where the Church is in embryonic form that are producing the vocations to preach the Gospel and assist the needy.

You are asked to support the missions financially too. A second collection for that purpose will be taken up the weekend of the 22nd and 23rd at all Masses. Please be generous.

October is traditionally a month for Marian devotions. Please remember to stop by the grotto on our property with the statue of the Blessed Mother and offer a prayer there for your family or other needs you may have. Also, you are encouraged to pray the rosary. Our Lady hears all her children and she has promised to pray for us now and at the hour of our death.

The Eucharistic Revival has been underway for several months. It is a special intention in our weekend Prayer of the Faithful every weekend and it will remain there for the foreseeable future. If you or members of your family are not currently practicing the Catholic faith, we want you to resume practicing your faith.

The Lord is waiting for you to come back and so are we.

If you are going to Mass only sporadically, we want you to come every week as the Commandment enjoins us to do. The Lord's gifts to us at the Holy Eucharist are not available to us in any other locale and at any other time. The Holy Eucharist is the preeminent way to meet the Lord and deepen our relationship with Him; there is simply no substitute for it.

We continue to make available to our parishioners time for Eucharistic Adoration. On the first Thursday of the month in the afternoon beginning at 3:00 PM, we invite you to come and pray before the Lord Who wants His sons and daughters to be refreshed and rejuvenated by His Presence. We also have a Holy Hour seasonally in the evening. Please continue to watch the bulletin for more details. Our next Holy Hour in the evening will be in late November (early Advent).

At the beginning of November (the 1st), we mark the Solemnity of All Saints, a Holy Day of Obligation. Please see future editions of the bulletin and the church bulletin boards for the times of Mass on that occasion.

The next day, the 2nd, we commemorate All Souls. Mass that day is at 9:00 AM since it is a Wednesday. Mass that day will be for all those whose names have been submitted to us using the envelope for that purpose. Indeed, there will be a remembrance at a Novena of Masses beginning on November 2nd. If you do not have a designated envelope for All Souls, additional envelopes are going to be found in the church.

Kindly submit your envelope in the collection basket or drop it off in person at the parish center.

Mass Book for 2023

The Mass Book for 2023 opens on Monday, October 24th at 9:00 AM in the parish center.

We encourage you to remember deceased relatives and friends at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Through the Communion of Saints, we are never removed from those whom we love. We hope for a reunion with them in God's providence, and praying for them now helps to bring that reunion a nearer prospect.

From the Pastor's Desk

A voluntary collection will be taken up to assist those affected by Hurricane Ian and Hurricane Fiona at the church on the weekend of October 22nd and 23rd. Parishioners desirous of contributing may place donations in a receptacle designated for that purpose in the vestibule of the church. It will be there only one weekend. Whatever donations we receive will then be forwarded to the Diocese of Rockville Centre.

We are in the process of updating our donation records. If you are contributing to the parish using electronic giving and are not using donation envelopes sent through the regular mail, please contact the parish office. If you are not using envelopes at all to support the parish, please let us know too. If you are not supporting the parish at all but you do receive envelopes through the regular mail, please let us know as well.

Each month, the envelope company sends envelopes to as many as three times the parishioners who use them. The envelope company in turn charges the parish for all envelopes sent regardless of use or not. We hope to have a much more accurate number of regular envelope users by Christmas time. Your cooperation is very much appreciated.

Sunday, Oct 16, 2022Yes, there's a day for that

Mealtime arrives three times daily. Most of us are glad to sit down and dig in. Yet for 800 million people worldwide, there isn't enough to eat. Nearly 40 percent of the world community can only afford nutrient-poor diets. The medical costs associated with unhealthy diets will soon exceed $1.3 trillion annually. The problem isn't growing enough food. Fourteen percent of each harvest is lost to bad handling, storage, and transit methods. Another 17 percent is lost at the consumer end; it simply goes bad or gets thrown away. World hunger is solvable. Find out more at World Food Day.

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 17:8-13; 2 Timothy 3:14—4:2; Luke 18:1-8 (147). "Proclaim the word . . . convince, reprimand, encourage through all patience and teaching."

Monday, Oct 17, 2022Follow the lead of those in need

The United Nations, which declared today Poverty Eradication Day, proposed that the world work to "build forward," which "means not only that no one is left behind, but that people living in poverty are actively encouraged and supported to be in the front." The Catholic Church has a very similar teaching called the "preferential option for the poor." The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that "those who are oppressed by poverty are the object of a preferential love on the part of the Church which, since her origin and in spite of the failings of many of her members, has not ceased to work for their relief, defense, and liberation through numerous works of charity which remain indispensable always and everywhere." Do your part to create a society where the needs of the poor are always considered first.

MEMORIAL OF IGNATIUS OF ANTIOCH, BISHOP, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 2:1-10; Luke 12:13-21 (473). "Thus will it be for the one who stores up treasure for himself but is not rich in what matters to God."

Tuesday, Oct 18, 2022Paging Dr. Luke

Thanks to scripture scholarship, we know that Saint Luke authored not only the Gospel of Luke, but also the Acts of the Apostles. Thanks to Saint Paul, and later Saint Jerome, we likewise know that Luke was a physician. Little wonder, then, that Luke's description of Jesus' life contains more accounts of physical healing than the other New Testament books. Luke's writing is famous for honoring the full humanity of everyone Jesus encountered. How can you be a person who does the same?

FEAST OF LUKE, EVANGELIST

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Timothy 4:10-17b; Luke 10:1-9 (661). "Say to them, 'The Kingdom of God is at hand for you.'"

Wednesday, Oct 19, 2022Healing past wrongs is a mission of love

Today the church celebrates the feast of the North American Martyrs, a group of eight French Jesuit missionaries killed in the 17th century by members of the Mohawk people in Canada. One of the best-known martyrs is Saint Isaac Jogues, who after originally being ransomed by Dutch colonists—including a Protestant pastor—in 1642, was one of two Jesuits who returned to the Mohawk region in an (unsuccessful) attempt to broker peace. As relations between the church hierarchy and First Nations people remain fraught, and following Pope Francis' recent visit to Canada to apologize for injustices at the hands of Catholics, may the saints we remember today inspire us to serve without prejudice or fear.

MEMORIAL OF JOHN DE BRÉBEUF AND ISAAC JOGUES, JESUIT PRIESTS, AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 3:2-12; Luke 12:39-48 (475). "God indeed is my savior; I am confident and unafraid. My strength and my courage is the LORD, and he has been my savior."

Thursday, Oct 20, 2022We all struggle at times

Saint Paul of the Cross became the founder of the Passionists, a worldwide religious community. In his day (the 1700s) he was a famous preacher who drew large crowds. But as a young man still considering his path in life, he was beset with doubts: "The very sound of the church bells became hateful to me," he wrote about this period. His life reminds us that confusion and doubt have long affected the faithful. If you've experienced this kind of anguish, you are not alone. "Lord, I believe. Help my unbelief," (Mark 9:23) is a prayer many turn to.

MEMORIAL OF PAUL OF THE CROSS, PRIEST, FOUNDER

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 3:14-21; Luke 12:49-53 (476). "I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing!"

Friday, Oct 21, 2022Right relationship

Following Jesus the Christ means living in right relationship—with others, with the Earth and all God's creatures, and perhaps most important, with your own self. The backbone of right relationships is love. Such love, Saint Thomas Aquinas says, is "willing the good of the other." For Catholics, this idea of right relationship has two key components. First, it means upholding the dignity of all persons, especially when we encounter differences and conflict. Second, it means working for justice. Justice is something we can practice daily in our choices of how we live and how we treat others. It also means being aware of and active in transforming unjust structures and institutions. What helps you nurture right relationships?

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 4:1-6; Luke 12:54-59 (477). "Why do you not judge for yourselves what is right?"

Saturday, Oct 22, 2022Loss leads to life

Pope Saint John Paul II, canonized in 2014, was revered for his many accomplishments during his long pontificate. What is less well known about the beloved pontiff is that he experienced tremendous loss early in life. The future pope lost his mother when he was only 9, his eldest brother when he was 12, and his father when he was just 21. Perhaps this is why Saint John Paul II made the "culture of life" a focus on his pontificate: the "church counters the culture of death with the culture of life," he said as he advocated for all life issues, in statements such as this: "May the death penalty, an unworthy punishment still used in some countries, be abolished throughout the world." Let loss lead to life.

MEMORIAL OF JOHN PAUL II, POPE

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 4:7-16; Luke 13:1-9 (478). "Sir, leave it for this year also, and I shall cultivate the ground around it and fertilize it; it may bear fruit in the future."
