As I write this column, the New York Yankees are about to play in the 5th game of a five-game series with the Cleveland Guardians. We will see in a few hours whether the Bronx Bombers will advance to the next round of the playoffs or go home and start thinking about the next season. Let's go Yankees!

October is traditionally a month for Marian Devotions. Please remember to stop by the grotto on our property with the statue of the Blessed Mother and offer a prayer there for your family or other needs you may have. Moreover, you are encouraged to pray the holy rosary. Our Lady hears all her children and she has promised to pray for us now and at the hour of our death.

Mission Sunday is observed on Sunday, October 23rd. Please remember the Church's missionary work all over the globe and at home. By her nature, the Church is always missionary, always looking to proclaim our salvation in Christ to all in the human family. To assist the Church in the missionary endeavor, a second collection will be taken up at all weekend Masses on October 22nd and 23rd. Please be generous, as always.

This weekend there will be a receptacle in the vestibule for all who wish to assist the victims of Hurricanes Ian and Fiona with a monetary donation. The receptacle will be there only this weekend. Funds collected will be forwarded to the Diocese of Rockville Centre which in turn arranges that the Church in those devastated areas receives the aid we give.

The Mass Book for 2023 is open on Monday, October 24th at 9:00 AM in the parish center. I urge you to reserve Mass Intentions for relatives and friends on birthdays and anniversaries of death. As I have indicated numerous times in the past, remembering those whom we loved on earth anticipates their union with God for all eternity in heaven. Help them to see the face of God – the last and greatest beatitude for all who have been made in the image and likeness of God.

Over the past few weeks, there have been many open Mass Intentions during the week (at 9:00 AM). I exhort you to reserve a Mass Intention – again, on the occasion of a birthday or an anniversary of death for a loved one. Living with the Lord is a family affair because of the Communion of Saints. Our separation from family members and friends is not final or definitive so long as we have the Holy Eucharist to help loved ones reach their heavenly home.

On November 1st, we celebrate All Saints Day. As it is a Tuesday this year, All Saints Day is a Holy Day of Obligation. As usual, there is Mass in the morning at 9:00 AM and Mass in the evening at 7:00 PM. Join us as we pray, through the intercession of all the saints, for a continued adherence to the blessed life which characterizes the friends of Christ.

On November 2nd, we commemorate All Souls Day. I encourage you to enroll deceased family members and friends so they can be remembered that day. Enrollment comes with filling out the designated envelope which you received in your packet of envelopes in the regular mail. Envelopes can be returned in the collection taken up at weekend Mass or dropped off in person at the parish center during regular business hours. If you do not have a designated envelope in your possession, please see an usher in church and request one.

Those enrolled on All Souls Day will be remembered continuously in a Novena of Masses starting on the 2nd. Join us as we pray that deceased family members and friends be made ready for their entrance into eternal glory with Christ, the Blessed Mother and all the angels and saints.

Looking ahead a bit more in the calendar, Saint Margaret will host an ecumenical prayer service on Sunday, November 20th at 7:00 PM. Consider this an invitation to join us for the occasion. Our choir will sing at the service.

We continue to be attentive to the Eucharistic Revival in the way we pray, learn and serve at Saint Margaret Parish. We are emphasizing the Mass, Eucharistic Adoration and catechetical sessions on the Real Presence. We invite you to join us for all that is planned to deepen our Eucharistic faith until the period comes to an end in our parish, our diocese and our country. That will be in 2024.

The Holy Eucharist is exposed in the church for Adoration on the First Thursday of the month in the afternoon. Please see the bulletin for more details. We also have periodic Holy Hours in the evening during the week. Our next one is held early in Advent (November 28th). It goes from 7:00 until 8:00 PM in the church.

We finish the Enrichment Evenings on October 24th. We thank the catechists and others who attended the five sessions we had. We will see if we can offer another series in the Spring of 2023. Stay tuned and watch the bulletin for more details.

Who would have thought our New York professional football teams would play this well as the NFL nears its mid-way point? Go Jets and Giants!

From the Pastor's Desk

A voluntary collection will be taken up to assist those affected by Hurricane Ian and Hurricane Fiona at the church on the weekend of October 22nd and 23rd. Parishioners desirous of contributing may place donations in a receptacle designated for that purpose in the vestibule of the church. It will be there only one weekend. Whatever donations we receive will then be forwarded to the Diocese of Rockville Centre.

We are in the process of updating our donation records. If you are contributing to the parish using electronic giving and are not using donation envelopes sent through the regular mail, please contact the parish office. If you are not using envelopes at all to support the parish, please let us know too. If you are not supporting the parish at all but you do receive envelopes through the regular mail, please let us know as well.

Each month, the envelope company sends envelopes to as many as three times the parishioners who use them. The envelope company in turn charges the parish for all envelopes sent regardless of use or not. We hope to have a much more accurate number of regular envelope users by Christmas time. Your cooperation is very much appreciated.

Sunday, Oct 23, 2022*Share some good news

The church isn't stationary but missionary. The word Mass shares the same root as mission: to be sent. We enter the sanctuary weekly to prepare for our mission. This World Mission Sunday, Pope Francis shares his "dream of a completely missionary Church." To embrace this vision is to do three things: Bear witness. Do it everywhere. Trust the Spirit. We remember on this day five Adorers of the Blood of Christ from Illinois who embraced the vision and were martyred in Liberia in 1992. One sister wrote: "We need to move to the call of our mission, not to the call of our comfort." Venture out of your comfort zone.

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18; 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18; Luke 18:9-14 (150). "The Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the proclamation might be completed."

Monday, Oct 24, 2022*The other cheek is forgiveness

Think it's hard to "turn the other cheek"? What if someone stabbed you in the cheek in an attempt to kill you?! While you imagine what you'd do in that situation, consider what Saint Anthony Mary Claret did when it actually happened to him: He got his would-be assassin's death sentence commuted. As the archbishop of Santiago, Cuba in the mid-1800s, Claret had made enemies by advocating for the downtrodden and denouncing racism. He's an example that turning the other cheek is not a passive action, as some might think, because it has two parts: first, not responding in kind, and then, actively giving a second chance to the offender to do the right thing. Such brave love can and has stopped hate in its tracks.

MEMORIAL OF ANTHONY MARY CLARET, BISHOP, FOUNDER

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 4:32—5:8; Luke 13:10-17 (479).

"Woman, you are set free of your infirmity."

Tuesday, Oct 25, 2022*God blesses the work of human hands

Few Catholics know the significance of French priest Jacques Paul Migne, born this day in 1800. But without Migne's skills as a journalist and prowess as a publisher, precious few would know anything about the early church fathers. Migne launched a publishing company that produced, at moderate prices, hundreds of volumes of church history and theology whose aim was to better educate Catholic clergy. Even today, his writings on the early church fathers are considered the most complete ever written. Migne's inventiveness reminds us that we, too, can glorify God with our daily work.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 5:21-33; Luke 13:18-21 (480). "To what shall I compare the Kingdom of God? It is like yeast that a woman took and mixed in with three measures of wheat flour until the whole batch of dough was leavened."

Wednesday, Oct 26, 2022*Faithful to the end

On this day in 1529, Saint Thomas More became Lord Chancellor of England under King Henry VIII, who soon after began to forcefully agitate for independence from the dictates of the pope. This led to a clash with Thomas—a staunchly orthodox Catholic—who refused to betray his faith and accede to the royal demands. By 1534, he was imprisoned on charges of treason and was executed the next year after Henry declared himself head of an independent Church of England. As Anglicans and Roman Catholics continue to dialogue in view of shared ecumenical goals, let's remember the faithful witness of Thomas More—a friend to all and a Catholic par excellence.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 6:1-9; Luke 13:22-30 (481). "For behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last."

Thursday, Oct 27, 2022*Watch your attitude

In today's gospel King Herod Antipas (who beheaded John the Baptist) is depicted as a menacing tyrant, like his father, Herod the Great (who ordered the Slaughter of the Innocents). Such sins can seem far removed from ours. But Pope Francis has noted: "We must not think that we imitate Herod only if we become tyrants. No. In reality, it's an attitude to which we can all succumb, every time we try to dispel our fears with arrogance, even if only verbal or made up of small abuses intended to mortify those close to us." Let's pray for a world free of powerful tyrants—and free of any tyrannical impulses of our own.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 6:10-20; Luke 13:31-35 (482). "Some Pharisees came to Jesus and said, 'Go away, leave this area because Herod wants to kill you.'"

Friday, Oct 28, 2022*You can lead from behind, too

Of the 12 apostles, Peter is always front and center—rightfully so, for one called "the rock" (the literal meaning of the Greek name Pétros). Others are recognizable from various gospel stories. But then there's the zealots Simon and Jude (a.k.a. Thaddeus or "Son of James"). We know virtually nothing about them. Yet, they are remembered to this day because Jesus chose them to help lead the early church. Jesus knew that different kinds of leaders were needed to proclaim the gospel—the headliners like Peter and the "behind the scenes" people like Simon and Jude. What kind of leader are you called to be?

FEAST OF SIMON AND JUDE, APOSTLES

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 2:19-22; Luke 6:12-16 (666). "You are fellow citizens with the holy ones . . . built upon the foundation of the Apostles and prophets."

Saturday, Oct 29, 2022*The mother of all virtues

Humility is not much in demand these days, when celebrity status and social media popularity seem all the rage. But precisely because humility challenges all that is near and dear to our ego, it is worth wrestling with, especially if we wish to draw closer to God. Saint Augustine said in one of his letters, "The way to Christ is first through humility, second through humility, third through humility." He also said, "It was pride that changed angels into devils; it is humility that makes [humans] as angels." Humility has a transformative quality if we understand it not as groveling but rather as knowing our true measure, of keeping our feet firmly on the ground (the Latin for earth—humus—is the word's root). Perhaps Saint Thomas Aquinas defined it best: "Humility means seeing ourselves as God sees us: knowing every good we have comes from Him as pure gift."

TODAY'S READINGS: Philippians 1:18b-26; Luke 14:1, 7-11 (484). "For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
