

Time, Talent & Treasure

Whenever we are down or feeling anxious, we must turn to God in prayer. As we hear in the Second Reading, turning to God in prayer, with thanksgiving, will help us in all of our struggles .

On this first full weekend of October, there are a number of matters which are deserving of your attention as we continue our observance of the Eucharistic Revival (in Year Two, the Year of the Parish). The first is an event which, I hope, will take place at Saint Margaret depending on the number of people who commit.

On Saturday, November 18th, we are holding a Day of Recollection in the church. It begins at 1:00 PM and finishes with the celebration of Holy Mass at 5:00 PM. The Day of Recollection is being led by Fr. Roger Landry, a priest of the Diocese of Fall River in Massachusetts. He is currently the Chaplain at Columbia University in New York City.

I have asked all parishioners to give serious consideration to participating. Our preacher for the Day is a designated preacher of the Eucharistic Revival and he comes to us with experience in many different parts of the Lord's vineyard. I ask you to let me know that you will attend by calling the pastoral center and leaving a message for me. We need 50 people. Be one of those 50! Or more if possible.

Please see the sign in the vestibule of the church and in the pastoral center announcing the event. There is no fee involved. Come because you want to deepen your devotion to the Holy Eucharist.

On the next day on the calendar, the 19th, we close out the 75th Anniversary of the Parish of Saint Margaret. The day starts with Mass at 11:00 AM. Please note the time. On that Sunday, there are just two Masses – 8:00 AM and 11:00 AM – in our schedule. There is no Mass at 10:00 AM and no Mass at 12 noon.

Following Mass, there is a luncheon at Majestic Gardens in Rocky Point starting at 1:00 PM. Tickets for the luncheon go on sale next weekend before and after all Masses in the vestibule of the church, and during the week in the pastoral center during regular business hours.

We continue to work on our journal which chronicles our parish history and what is going on now at Saint Margaret. We are grateful to those of you who took ads in the journal or placed remembrances of family members there too. It is not too late to get an ad or remembrance in under the wire. We are about to close the door on journal submissions in a few days.

Later in this month, on Monday the 23rd, we open the 2024 Mass Book for announced Mass Intentions. There is no limit on the number of Mass Intentions you may request. All of our Masses – on the weekend and during the week – have Intentions. That would be 9 Masses every week which have Intentions. Family members and friends may be remembered on their birthdays and anniversaries of death, for instance.

During October, the Church marks Mission Sunday. This year it comes on the fourth weekend of the month (the 21st and 22nd). We have a Mission Sunday every year to remind ourselves of the responsibility we all have through Baptism to bring others to Christ as we were brought to the Lord. This work is as old as the Gospel itself. Let us all do our part then to support the missionary work we have in front of us.

The month of October prompts us to think of the Blessed Virgin Mary. As the Mother of God, she is present in Cana at the wedding feast as her Son begins His public ministry. She famously says on the occasion, "Do whatever He tells you." (Jn 2:5) This remark is made in reference to her Son and the waiters who are there when the wine runs out. Our Lady can make this comment because she herself did whatever her Son directed her to do – with due regard for filial obedience of course. Our Blessed Mother was only teaching others what she did in relation to the Word in the Annunciation. (cf. Lk 1:38) The obedience of the Mother of God brought us Our Savior. Thus, among the virtues, we cannot underestimate obedience - for by opening up her heart to the Word, the Holy Spirit overshadowed the holy woman of Nazareth. (cf. Lk 1:35) We are bearers of Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit too. May we dispose ourselves obediently to God's will as did Our Mother before us.

Monday the 9th is a civil holiday, Columbus Day, and the pastoral center is closed. It will re-open on Tuesday the 10th at 9:00 AM.

Until the next time.

To the greater good!

Our country's second poet laureate, Richard Wilbur (1921-2017), fought in the Second World War. It convinced him that writing verse was serious business: "One does not use poetry ... to organize oneself and the world, until one's world somehow gets out of hand." Wilbur explained: "I feel that the universe is full of glorious energy ... and that the ultimate character of things is comely and good. I am perfectly aware that I say this in the teeth of all sorts of contrary evidence, and that I must be basing it partly on temperament and partly on faith." Believe in the ultimate goodness, regardless of any evidence to the contrary!

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 5:1-7; Philippians 4:6-9; Matthew 21:33-43 (139). "Whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious ... think about these things."

Going the distance for faith

In the third century, Saint Denis evangelized the country that would come to be France (then called Gaul), and he is thought to have been the first bishop of Paris (then called Lutetia). He was so successful at making converts that the Roman governor beheaded him on the highest hill in the city, now known as Montmartre. It was said he picked up his head and kept preaching while walking many miles before reaching his burial site in a town later named after him. He is the patron saint of France and one of the Fourteen Holy Helpers. Call on him for a missionary zeal that just won't quit.

MEMORIAL OF DENIS, BISHOP, AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

TODAY'S READINGS: Jonah 1:1—2:1-2, 11; Luke 10:25-37 (461). "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind."

Don't shortchange charity

In 2021, Pope Francis used today, World Mental Health Day, to pray for those "affected by mental disorders and also the victims, often young, of suicide." This June, Francis mentioned teen suicide again, decrying a "culture that leads young people to think that they are 'losers.'" Francis also emphasized the basic human right to medical care and social services—so critical for mental health—but he also pointed to us individual Christians, who in our "haste" don't often stop long enough to care for each other. "It is easy to delegate charity to others, yet the calling of every Christian"—according to Jesus' parable of the Good Samaritan—"is to become personally involved." His advice? Learn from Saint Thérèse of Lisieux, who said, "charity must not remain locked in the depths of one's heart."

TODAY'S READINGS: Jonah 3:1-10; Luke 10:38-42 (462). "The Lord said to her in reply, 'Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things.'"

A shrine for the ages

In America's "first city," St. Augustine, Florida, many Catholics today will celebrate the feast of Our Lady of La Leche, dedicated to a Marian apparition first recognized during the time of the Spanish colonial empire. The devotion, depicting Mary nursing the infant child Jesus, traveled with settlers to Florida in the 16th century, and a shrine to her was built at Mission Nombre de Dios in the new colony of St. Augustine. The shrine is the oldest in the United States, having received canonical coronation in 2021, and is a popular pilgrimage site for those seeking intercession related to a pregnancy. Maybe today is the day for you to offer a special prayer for someone in your own life.

TODAY'S READINGS: Jonah 4:1-11; Luke 11:1-4 (463). "All the nations you have made shall come and worship you, O Lord, and glorify your name."

Come as you are

Christians whose personalities would never be called pious or meek might take heart in Caryl Houselander (1901-54), whose death we commemorate today. She smoked, drank, and was said to have a sharp tongue. But people were drawn to her for good counsel, and Houselander's spiritual writing persists. A sample: "Love is most likely to spring from another's need for us, and the fact of spending ourselves for another always generates new life in us." With your own God-given personality, warts and all, take a step today toward building the Kingdom.

TODAY'S READINGS: Malachi 3:13-20b; Luke 11:5-13 (464). "And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find."

The devil doesn't have a prayer

In an interview in Exorcists against Satan by Italian journalist Fabio Marchese Ragona, Pope Francis was asked about the devil. "It is possible that I get on the Devil's nerves," he said, "because I try to follow the Lord and do what the Gospel says. And that annoys him. At the same time, he is certainly happy when I commit some sin. He seeks man's failure, but he has no chance if there is prayer." It is a great mystery that God should permit diabolical activity, says the Catechism of the Catholic Church, "but we know that in everything God works for good with those who love him" (CCC 395). Take the simple steps of daily prayer and good works to keep the devil at bay.

TODAY'S READINGS: Joel 1:13-15; 2:1-2; Luke 11:15-26 (465). "If Satan is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand?"

Redeeming qualities

There was a profound division in the church during the third-century pontificate of Callistus I. The pope believed and taught that even the most serious sins like murder and adultery could be absolved in a sincere confession. His position scandalized many church leaders in Rome who didn't agree. They believed that some sins were too serious to be forgiven, and they accused Callistus of laxity and sympathizing with heretics. Eventually Callistus prevailed and Confession became the healing sacrament for all sin, even the most serious. Thank our merciful God for guiding the church toward an ethic of redemption.

MEMORIAL OF CALLISTUS I, POPE, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: Joel 4:12-21; Luke 11:27-28 (466). "Blessed are those who hear the word of God and observe it."
