

Time, Talent & Treasure

As Catholics, we are called to humble ourselves and be at the service of others. This week, take time out of your schedule to do something for someone else. Perhaps volunteer somewhere, take up someone else's chores or just do something special for a family member.

Family members, please resubmit names for those who are ill. We will list them for 4 weeks, and then remove them unless told otherwise. Please note- due to privacy issues, we can include names given by the individual or a health care proxy only. Thank you.

The Mass and luncheon marking our parish's 75th Anniversary will soon be upon us. Remember the date and remember the time: Sunday the 19th (two weeks away now) at 11:00 AM (note the different time). The celebrant of the Mass is Bishop Robert Coyle, the Vicar for Suffolk County. At 1:00 PM, the luncheon commences at the Majestic Gardens in Rocky Point.

Please note that there are just three Masses the weekend of November 18th/19th. The Vigil Mass on the 18th at 5:00 PM remains the same; the first Mass on Sunday the 19th is at the usual time of 8:00 AM. There is no 10:00 AM Mass and no 12 noon Mass on the 19th.

You still have a little more time to get a ticket for the luncheon. You can do that until the Wednesday before the event (the 15th) at the pastoral center during regular business hours.

We are still looking for men and women to join us for the Day of Recollection on Saturday, November 18th beginning at 1:00 PM. We have still not reached our desired goal of 50 people. Please invite family members and friends to join us. I don't want the attendance to reflect badly on our parish, so please do your best to find another person to bring with you to the couple of hours we spend praying in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament.

We have our annual Mass on Thanksgiving Day on Thursday, November 23rd at 9:00 AM. Since it is a national holiday and almost everyone is off from work, I ask that you make an effort to join with us and attend the Mass. It is a most fitting way to start the day of giving thanks.

We begin the season of Advent the first weekend of December (the 2nd and 3rd). The first weekday of Advent we are having another of our Holy Hours. All are invited to pray with us on Monday, December 4th at 7:00 PM. The Hour starts with Exposition and concludes with Benediction.

On Tuesday, December 5th, I ask all of the ushers from all four weekend Masses to meet with me in the pastoral center at 7:00 PM. The meeting will not last more than 45 minutes.

The last two Advent seasons (2021 and 2022), we have had on the Third Sunday of that holy season what is known as Lessons and Carols. Both years, Lessons and Carols began at 4:00 PM. This year, we have moved the time up to 2:30 PM. The date is Sunday, December 17th. Mark your calendars now.

I would like to see a good attendance, at least a better attendance than we had the last two years. In fact, that is why the time has been moved up this year. We have heard from some that they didn't attend in the past because they did not want to be out in the dark after 5:00 PM. Well, there is no excuse this year to come and get ready spiritually for the Solemnity of Christmas. So, please bring your family or a friend with you to our 3rd edition of Lessons and Carols.

Come one, come all. Listen to the liturgical texts of Advent and then hear the hymns characteristic of and then stay for the reception which will be held in the auditorium following Lessons and Carols.

Until the next time.

Sunday, Nov 05, 2023Vocation 101

It's National Vocation Awareness Week! What's your parish or Catholic organization doing to promote the call to ordained and religious life in your community? Consider the threefold tasks of "prayer, invitation, and education": to pray for vocations, invite likely candidates to consider them, and educate others about the joy of service to Christ and his church. Also check out the website of the National Religious Vocation Conference. They offer Conversation Cards to keep handy: business-style cards that say "You would make a great priest/ sister/ brother/ nun" on the front. The back reads: "Imagine the possibilities."

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Malachi 1:14b—2:2b, 8-10; 1 Thessalonians 2:7b-9, 13; Matthew 23:1-12 (151). "With such affection for you, we were determined to share with you not only the gospel of God, but our very selves as well."

Monday, Nov 06, 2023All paths designed to lead to holiness

Some people hear their call early in life, and it's loud and clear. Others grapple longer and harder with figuring out their vocation. Regardless of where you fall on that spectrum of discernment, and no matter what state of life God intends for you, keep in mind during this National Vocation Awareness Week (Nov. 5-11) that we are all called in essence to the same thing. Let the words of Carmelite nun Saint Thérèse of Lisieux to her friend upon her marriage reassure you: "The road we are following is different, however, the goal is the same purpose: to become holy in the way God has traced out for us."

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 11:29-36; Luke 14:12-14 (485). "You will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

Tuesday, Nov 07, 2023Honor wise council

On this day in 680, the Third Council of Constantinople convened. Ecumenical councils summon a representative constituency of church leadership to settle important questions and fine-tune church teaching. Earliest councils, beginning in 325, solidified basics of Christian faith, often tackling heresies about the true nature of Jesus Christ. Later councils wrestled with institutional growing pains. Let us be grateful that our ancestors cared about the deposit of faith enough to gather and debate at length in order to hand down to future generations such as ours the best the tradition has to offer.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 12:5-16b; Luke 14:15-24 (486). "We, though many, are one Body in Christ and individually parts of one another."

Wednesday, Nov 08, 2023Act decisively for justice

Today, we remember our forebear Joseph Rummel, the longtime archbishop of New Orleans during the era of Jim Crow segregation in the Deep South. As head of the diocese with one of the largest black populations in the nation, Rummel set out to desegregate local Catholic parishes and schools, including the archdiocesan seminary, beginning in 1948. After a letter from local segregationist Catholics to the pope was rebuffed by the holy father, Rummel declared all parochial schools desegregated in 1962. Famously, he later excommunicated several vocal holdouts who protested his move. Where is such decisive action against racism among bishops today? We are all responsible for opposing injustice. How will you act for the common good?

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 13:8-10; Luke 14:25-33 (487). "You shall love your neighbor as yourself. Love does no evil to the neighbor; hence, love is the fulfillment of the law."

Thursday, Nov 09, 2023Let the good times roll

Catholics have lots of words with their own twists, and one of them is "feast." While we don't all sit down to a giant meal for every "feast," in some corner of the world, Catholics may well be doing just that. In church language, "feast" means something special is celebrated on a particular day. Feasts range from the death days of saints, to events in Jesus' life, to the foundation of a church with a special history (such as today's feast of the Lateran Basilica). Many feasts have special followings in particular cultures. Let feast days remind you that sometimes devotion also calls for a good party!

FEAST OF THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 47:1-2, 8-9, 12; 1 Corinthians 3:9c-11, 16-17; John 2:13-22 (671). "His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me."

Friday, Nov 10, 2023You are simply divine

Known for his accessible preaching style, Pope Leo I helped his fifth-century flock and Christians down through the ages understand more fully the true nature of Christ and his saving gifts. By becoming human, explains Leo, "Jesus assumed the form of a servant without the stain of sin—enhancing what was human, not detracting from what was divine." As children of the light, we share in God's own nature. Therefore, our heads and hearts should reflect this holy inheritance. Or put simply by Leo: "Christian, remember your dignity."

MEMORIAL OF LEO THE GREAT, POPE, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 15:14-21; Luke 16:1-8 (489). "I will not dare to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me."

Saturday, Nov 11, 2023A veteran worthy of his day

Because Saint Martin of Tours (c. 320-397) was the son of a Roman army officer, he was required by law to serve in the Roman military. Two years after his conversion to Christianity he announced, "I am the soldier of Christ: it is not lawful for me to fight." He was arrested and charged with cowardice. So he volunteered to go into battle unarmed. Before he could make good on his offer, he was discharged from the military. This Veterans Day, we can remember those, like Saint Martin and Venerable Emil Kapaun, Army chaplain, who, for the sake of Christ, go into battle armed only with the love of Christ.

MEMORIAL OF MARTIN OF TOURS, BISHOP

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 16:3-9, 16, 22-27; Luke 16:9-15 (490). "No servant can serve two masters."
