Allow me to make a final comment on the parish's 75th Anniversary. It is only to close the loop on costs and expenses related to the reception back on June 11th (Solemnity of Corpus Christi) and the reception on November 19th (near the liturgical Memorial of Saint Margaret of Scotland). After doing all the calculations, I can report that the parish had a net gain of a little more than $6,350.00. Once again, thanks to all who participated in these events.

Returning to a familiar topic, that being the Eucharistic Revival, I mention that we are in the second year of the three-year observance. Later in this year, mid-July to be exact, there will be a Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis, Indiana. Catholics from all over the United States will be there for a period of a few days to attend presentations, and above all, to pray together before the Holy Eucharist as the center of all the proceedings. There will be Masses, of course, and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament – just as we have been holding here at Saint Margaret.

I will attend the Eucharistic Congress in Indiana. Upon returning from it, I will share with you what I found and see what we might put into practice in our parish. But that is still months away at this point.

What we can do now is be attentive to the matter I reported on in last weekend's bulletin. Then, I indicated that we will be inserting a period of Eucharistic Adoration into our weekend schedule. It will be on Saturday afternoons beginning at 4:00 PM and going until 4:45 PM. As I said the last time, the priest who is hearing confessions will expose and repose the Blessed Sacrament. I invite parishioners to come during that period of time and pray before the Blessed Sacrament. This will be convenient for those who are celebrating the Sacrament of Penance on Saturday afternoon and for those who are attending the 5:00 PM Mass.

This practice will commence on Saturday, January 27th. It is from that point forward a weekly event in our schedule. The only change I anticipate is on Holy Saturday when there will be no Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. But that isn't until March 30th. By then, we will have had it in our schedule for two months.

Thus, I encourage you to come and adore the Eucharistic Lord. Please know that there won't be a Benediction on Saturday afternoons. We will only have the simple rite of exposing and reposing the Blessed Sacrament.

One month from now, we begin our Lenten observance. As we all know, Ash Wednesday is the first day of Lent. As with previous years, there will be multiple opportunities for parishioners to receive ashes. In due course, you may consult the bulletin boards in church for the schedule of Masses and services when ashes are distributed.

Speaking of Lent, we will have a weekly period of Eucharistic Adoration in the evening as we did last year. It will be on Mondays from 7:30 – 9:00 PM. There are five Mondays all together. And each Monday a different topic will be addressed in the preaching in front of the Blessed Sacrament. Again, as we get closer to Lent, please see the bulletin boards for more information.

I am looking to schedule a parish mission. I have not settled on any dates yet; I am looking for a time in the early autumn. When I settle on definitive plans, I will announce the dates and times in the weekly bulletin. Please read this column for details on when that parish mission is scheduled and how you might participate.

While it is still early in the calendar year, I take this opportunity to make known that we will have a time in the Spring when there will be catechesis for adults (those 18 years of age and older) who have not celebrated the Sacrament of Confirmation. We expect that our Diocesan Bishop will once again extend the indult for priests to confer the Sacrament of Confirmation on Pentecost Sunday.

Over the next couple of weeks or so, adult parishioners may contact the pastoral center and leave word that they wish to celebrate Confirmation on Pentecost Sunday. The period of catechesis will be five weeks in length, that is, one night for 90 minutes over five weeks. This period of catechesis will be held during the Easter Season. Again, watch the bulletin for the announced dates of the catechesis.

Until the next time.

Msgr. Batule

WORD OF THE WEEK

Justice \ˈjə-stəs \

The moral fiber of a religious people that mirrors the God of Justice. More than an expression of fairness or the execution of legal judgment, biblical justice demands that we be straight, true, and righteous in our relationships with God and others.

Pronunciation: <https://tinyurl.com/Take5-justice>

CONTEXT

Justice and revenge are not the same thing. As my father said, justice at its best is love correcting everything that stands against love.

—Bernice King

Without justice and love, peace will always be a great illusion.

—Dom Hélder Câmara

It is impossible to struggle for civil rights, equal rights for blacks, without including whites. Because equal rights, fair play, justice, are like the air: we all have it, or none of us has it.

—Maya Angelou

WHY IT MATTERS

The theme of justice is central to scripture. Divine law defines it and the prophets clamor for it. Matthew describes Jesus' mission with Isaiah's proclamation: "I shall place my spirit upon him, and he will proclaim justice to the [nations]." It is impossible to be the People of God and reject the way of God. To be unconcerned with the work of justice is to be indifferent to the divine will and the coming Kingdom.

From Brothers and Sisters to Us (USCCB Pastoral Letter on Racism, 1979): Racism and economic oppression are distinct but interrelated forces which dehumanize our society. Movement toward authentic justice demands a simultaneous attack on both evils.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

What is meant by "just war"?

Just war theory is the body of moral reasoning developed to discern when the primary bias against war may shift toward an obligation to protect and defend. . . . In the Early Church, pacifism preceded just war tradition. The alliance of church with state under Constantine ensured that church policy leaned toward supporting the interests of the empire. Fourth-century theologians Ambrose and Augustine developed arguments that could, under limited conditions, make war not only permissible but obligatory in the service of a victimized neighbor.

Just war theory offers eight criteria for engagement. Seven determine whether a conflict is justified, including: just cause, competent authority, last resort, comparative justice, proportionality, right intention, and probability of success. The eighth consideration is reserved for an inevitable engagement and involves right conduct in wartime. In his 2020 encyclical Fratelli tutti, Pope Francis argued that "it is very difficult nowadays to invoke the rational criteria elaborated in earlier centuries to speak of the possibility of a 'just war.' Never again war!" Clearly, it's never enough simply to declare a cause righteous in one's own mind and issue a call to arms.

—Alice Camille, from Questions Catholics Ask <https://tinyurl.com/QCA-just-war>

REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. DAY (JANUARY 15)

A matter of head and heart

"One day we will learn that the heart can never be totally right if the head is totally wrong," the Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. wrote that in his book Strength to Love in 1963. He underscored the necessity of taking responsibility for the formation and lifelong education of our consciences. You have to be sure that your convictions are tied to more than your preferences, biases, and opinions!

READINGS: 1 Samuel 15:16-23; Mark 2:18-22 (311 <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/011524.cfm>). "No one pours new wine into old wineskins. . . . Rather, new wine is poured into fresh wineskins."
